

WASTEWATER/WATER TREATMENT FACILITY OPERATOR – JOB DESCRIPTION

SUMMARY

Sorrel River Ranch Resort & Spa is a luxury guest ranch located along the scenic Colorado River surrounded by 2,000-foot high cliffs, buttes, and mesas. We are located just 17 miles from Moab, 43 miles from Canyonlands National Park, and 21 miles from Arches National Park.

We are looking for a reliable Treatment Plant Operator (I, II or III) to oversee our water treatment plant. You will work under the direction of our Director of Facilities.

Requirements & Responsibilities

- Requires Utah unrestricted wastewater treatment systems operator certification from the state of Utah which must be obtained and maintained thereafter.
- Must possess valid Utah driver's license
- Willingness to work shift work and be on-call.
- Monitor & evaluate facility equipment controls and operational processes.
- Monitor remote pump station operations, maintaining membrane filtering process, screening equipment, biosolids dewatering operations, chemical treatment, monitoring and evaluation of biological processes and disinfection systems.
- Perform related duties as assigned by the Director of Facilities
- Test condenser loops weekly, log results
- Test closed water systems monthly, log results
- Record keeping of test results
- Monitor web-based water treatment system
- Comply with OSHA regulations for Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) and chemical handling
- Tower blow down Meter checking monthly by service provider for accuracy and sewer credits applied (where applicable)
- Conduct annual certification training for Facilities personnel for water testing and treatment
- Follow recommendations to help prevent the spread of Legionnaire's Disease.
- Monitor water treatment recording program for the chiller package
- Test water systems daily (and monthly where appropriate), log results
- Trouble shoot issues and fix problem
- Knowledge of technical treatment plant equipment and machinery; it's operation, maintenance and repair, plant processes; hazards and precautions associated with plant operations; laboratory procedures and the chemical and physical process involved in wastewater treatment.
- Ability to understand and interpret laboratory data derived from wastewater samples; make appropriate decisions in emergency situations
- Interpret and apply laws governing wastewater treatment; communicating effectively both verbal and written

- Maintains accurate operating records
- Must pass alcohol and drug test.

Please submit your resume to HR@SorrelRiver.com. We thank all applicants; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted. Applicants who do not already have legal permission to work in the United States will not be considered. Sorrel River Ranch Resort & Spa is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to a diverse work culture, M/F/D/V.