SPACES

A LIBRARY FOR EVERY LOBO

CENTENNIAL SCIENCE & ENGINEERING LIBRARY
Located underground near Electrical Engineering
biology | engineering | mathematics | psychology | science

FINE ARTS & DESIGN LIBRARY
Located on the 4th floor of George Pearl Hall
architecture | art & art history | music | photography | theatre & dance

ZIMMERMAN LIBRARY
Located on the north side of Smith Plaza
business | education | humanities | social sciences | government information

GROUP STUDY ROOMS AND STUDY CARRELS
Every library has a variety of study rooms for reserve or first-come-first-serve.

HOURS
Hours are posted on library.unm.edu or call Ask a Librarian at 505.277.9100.
Look for extended hours in Zimmerman Library during mid-terms and finals.

ZIMMERMAN LIBRARY LEARNING COMMONS
The Learning Commons on the first floor has a range of furniture to suit group and individual study needs, outlets galore, and mobile dry erase boards, COMPUTERS
Desktop and laptop computers are available in all libraries.

LAPTOPS FOR LOAN
Anyone with a valid LOBO I.D. can check out a wireless enabled PC or Mac laptop for up to three hours for use in the building.

CHARGING STATIONS
Secure and lockable charging bays allow you to charge your mobile devices quickly and safely if you don’t have your charger at hand.

CLOUD PRINTING
Color and black & white printers are located in each library. Use your LoboCard, LoboCa$h card, Wepa print card, PayPal, or credit/debit card to pay for prints.

SCANNERS
Save paper! Free scanners are located at all libraries. Scan in a variety of formats to email or flash drive.

VR EQUIPMENT
Virtual Reality equipment is located in the Centennial Science & Engineering Library in DEN 2.

WI-FI
All libraries are networked for wireless access. Use your own computer or one of ours.
PEOPLE WHO CAN HELP

Ask a Librarian!

If you don’t know where to start with your library question Ask a Librarian is a great way to get help.

Phone 505.277.9100 | Text 505.431.4711
Email and chat at library.unm.edu

Research Guides
libguides.unm.edu

A quick and easy place to check for information sources on your subject is libguides.unm.edu. Guides have been created by subject specialist librarians and are organized by topics or courses.
In Person Help

goto.unm.edu/librarians

Visit any library service desk to ask for help with any library related question or service – from checking out books to how to find books and articles.

Subject Librarians

Make an appointment for in-depth help with your class assignment by calling 505.277.9100 or find a subject librarian online at goto.unm.edu/librarians.

Indigenous Nations Library Program

Native American/Indigenous communities receive a customized introduction to the UNM University Libraries resources and services. INLP librarians teach skills that will help students to use and critically evaluate information resources effectively. Classroom or one-on-one instruction is available.

Digital Initiatives and Scholarly Communication

DISC develops online cultural heritage and educational resources to support the student, faculty, and public research interests of UNM and New Mexico.

Research Data Services

RDS provides a wide variety of services in support of effective research data planning, management, preservation, discovery, consultation and support services.
Electronic Content
24/7 access to full-text articles, databases, e-books, music and other resources through library.unm.edu. Need help figuring out how to use them? Visit the library and talk to the librarians or call 505.277.9100.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL)
ILL requests material from other libraries around the world for UNM students, staff and faculty at no charge.

Map and Geographic Information Center
MAGIC is located in Centennial Science and Engineering Library with an extensive collection of current and historical maps.

Music and Movies
Music and movies are available at the Fine Arts & Design Library for research or fun. Streaming music and video databases also available 24/7 at library.unm.edu.

Newspapers
Keep up with hometown news or national news. Current issues are located in the Zimmerman Library basement. Native American newspapers can be found in the Indigenous Nations Library Program on the second floor of Zimmerman.

Popular Reading Collection
New releases of popular fiction and non-fiction are located in the Zimmerman Library Learning Commons.
Center for Southwest Research & Special Collections (CSWR)
Located in Zimmerman Library in the West Wing. The CSWR specializes in interdisciplinary subjects relating to New Mexico, the Southwestern U.S., Mexico and Latin America, as well as rare materials from around the world.