Happy Birthday Southern Sudan!

After years of civil war between south and north Sudan, the country we have loved and lived in for the past 12 years, has finally become its own nation. This historic event took place last month as record numbers of voting Southerners, almost 99%, voted for independence in the referendum. The results were confirmed earlier this week and the northern President Omar al-Bashir (pictured left with South Sudan President Salva Kiir on the right) has publicly declared he will accept the result. We are celebrating the birth of our new nation.

We lived with the Sudanese people during war, we watched their children grow up only knowing bombings and being denied basic needs like safe drinking water, food, school, clothing and medical care. Those that survived the war are plagued with memories of children they couldn't feed, loved ones that died from lack of medicine, displaced family members they haven't seen in years and relatives that gave their life fighting for the cause. The oppression and discrimination our brothers and sisters experienced over the past 50 years that allowed two devastating civil wars to claim over 2 million lives provoked us to move to Sudan in 1999 and make a difference. With such despair and suffering, we knew they needed Jesus to give them hope and change their lives through prayer and faith in believing in the one true God that can do the impossible. And He has done just that, the war ended against the odds and many are saying they never thought they would live to see this day of separation. We give all honor and glory to God who has power and gives authority to every government. And we give thanks to you for being instruments through which God used by joining us for many years in intercessory prayer for this country, and going into spiritual battle while the country fought a physical battle. Through the authority we have in Jesus Christ, the victory has been won and the country has been given independence and delivered from captivity. Crowds of Southerners are dancing, filled with great joy and shouting, "We are free!" The formal declaration for independence will be made on July 9th 2011.

Jesus on Wheels!

God has blessed our efforts to raise money and purchase an ambulance for our medical clinic. This is going to provide comfort and care for those patients who need to transfer to the nearest hospital 75 miles away. Most of these patients are in a critical condition and the 3 hour drive on dirt, pothole ridden roads really takes its toll when they are lying on a mattress in the back of our vehicle. The ambulance we have bought is specifically modified for use in extreme physical conditions like the ones we face in South Sudan and is outfitted with life saving equipment should we need it on the journey. We are excited for the patients that will directly benefit, for the hope it will bring to the community and for our medical staff who have to make decisions on sending patients for further care and have lost many on that journey. Thank you to everyone who sacrificed to help make this need a reality.

"So Moses swore on that day, saying, "Surely the land where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children's forever, because you have wholly followed the Lord my God." Joshua 14:9

Prayer Requests!

- ❖ Please pray for the President of South Sudan to be filled and have wisdom from above as he leads this country into the future.
- ❖ Pray for our family as we plan to visit the USA for a 3 month furlough in October, we still need visa's for our daughter Agum, who we have legal guardianship over but have not completed the adoption. We also need a car to use in and around the San Diego area.
- ❖ Pray for the safe and easy shipping, clearing and delivery of our ambulance from Dubai to Kenya and onto Sudan.
- ❖ Pray for fruit and favor on Sabet and Walter and the upcoming sports outreach this month.

Rejoicing in the Lord,

Sabet and Suzy Kuj
