

2019 Brewster Youth Football and AYF CODE of CONDUCT FORM

Brewster Youth Football will not tolerate verbal abuse of its volunteer coaches from any Fan, Parent or Spectator.

This is American Youth Football, not the pros. Fans, players and coaches, are expected to abide by a code of conduct at all American Youth Football Events. While 99% of the adults in the program will abide by this code without being told, this code is being published to protect the children and volunteers (which includes all coaches and board members) from the 1%.

FAN and PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Fans will abide by a Code of Conduct which includes the provisions which follow. If any of these rules are broken, Brewster Youth Football (and the Town of Southeast) shall have the authority to impose a penalty deemed appropriate:

Fan or Parent shall:

1. Not criticize the players/cheerleaders or coaches in the vicinity of the other spectators in or near the stands, but reserve constructive criticism for later, in private. A 24 hour cooling off period should be observed before any private conversations.
2. Accept decisions of the game officials (including referees and coaches) on the field as being fair and called to the best ability of said officials.
3. Not criticize an opposing team, its players, coaches, or fans by word of mouth or by gesture.
4. Refrain from using physical or verbal abuse or profane language at any time at the game, practice field, or other AYF functions.
5. Abstain from being under the influence of or in possession of and/or drinking alcoholic beverages and the possession or use of any illegal substance on both the game and practice fields.
6. Not be allowed on the sidelines during a game or restricted areas during practice.
7. Not interfere/ interrupt the coaching staff before, during or after games or at practice.
8. Not express complaints about coaches or to coaches in front of or around the children (i.e. right after a game/ practice).

VIOLATION

Any parent or fan (i.e. family member or guest) who violates the code of conduct risks the further participation of the child in the program. The procedure is as follows:

1. Any fan or parent who violates the code of conduct or becomes a nuisance will be asked to leave by the head coach and can be suspended from all team activities.
2. If the parent or fan fails to leave upon request, the child may be suspended from further participation in team activities by the head coach.
3. The head coach along with the executive board will decide if the duration of the suspension is to be longer than one to four weeks or if the child will be dropped from the program. That decision will depend on the attitude of the parents.
4. Any parent or fan who violates the code of conduct risks the future participation of his/her children in the program. Depending on the severity of the incident the board of directors may decide to ban future participation in the program for up to three years.

CONDUCT OF ALL PLAYERS - PARENTS

All players are guaranteed the AYF designated minimum plays in each Jamboree, Regular Season or Playoff game. Everything beyond that must be earned in the opinion of the coaching staff whose decisions are final.
