College you plan to attend _____ Intended Major _____

The below questions are provided to offer you guidance as you draft your essay. The questions should not be answered verbatim. Feel free to include additional information that you feel is relevant.

1. How many years did you play in Tomboys? At what levels did you play? Did you play Recreation, Travel or both? What positions did you play? Are you still playing softball?
2. Have you given back to Tomboys in any way? Helped at a Tomboys event? Volunteered at a Clinic? Jr. Umpire? Mentored a younger player? What have you done to advance softball, in general?
3. How has your experience with Tomboys and softball, in general, affected you as a person? What lessons will you take with you to college?
4. What would you tell an elementary school girl who never played softball, but is thinking about joining Tomboys?

This essay should be your story of how Tomboys has personally influenced you and how you have used that experience to give back to softball and the community.

Application deadline is midnight, Sunday, May 19, 2019. If you have questions, please email Betsy Danz at edbdanz@gmail.com.

Scholarship Winners will be announced at Bethlehem Tomboys Championship Weekend, at Line Drive.
