

SRVGAL Stompers – Hitting with Hailey Breakwell

SRVGAL is excited to announce a special batting clinic on Sat. 11/6/2021 hosted by one of the best hitting instructors in the west, Hailey Breakwell. Hailey is highly sought after by softball players from all over Northern California so don't miss this exceptional opportunity.

Saturday November 6th

Each session will be 2 hours.

9:00 am – 11:00 am

11:30 am - 1:30 pm

The cost is $50 per player and is non-refundable.

Space is limited with only 15 spots per session.

All levels of experience welcome.

Younger players are encouraged to sign up for the earlier session but are welcome at either.

*Location will be determined by weather (outdoor if it's clear or at the SRVGAL academy if it's raining) but the clinic will happen rain or shine.

Hailey Breakwell's Softball Bio:

A 4-year Starter at Idaho State University, she helped lead the Bengals to 3 back-to-back conference championships, also taking home conference POY in 2014. Hailey started all 4 years as a shortstop and hit for power in the heart of the lineup.

After her college career, Hailey continued coaching at the Division 1 level for Wichita State, and Saint Francis University, earning NCAA regional births at both schools. She also continued playing for her home country, New Zealand, through the 2020 Olympic Trials.

Hailey started Hailey Breakwell Softball Development in 2020 and gives private lessons at VIA The Zone in Oakland and Gamespeed in Concord. As well as doing camps and clinics. She is also the co-founder and director of hitting and infield for The Fastpitch Lab, an online training platform that launched in September 2021.
