YOUTH & GIRLS HOCKEY ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

Hockey Club Fairbanks

PLANNING COMMITTEE

The following Planning Committee was formed, consisting of equal representation from all four youth hockey organizations in the community:

- NAHA: Jack Tragis
- NAHA: Vacant
- Arctic Lions: Dima Kulmanovsky
- Arctic Lions: Greg Milles
- FAHA: Mike Steffey
- FAHA: Anna Culley
- Alaska Girl's and Women's Hockey: Luther Brice
- Alaska Girl's and Women's Hockey: Lynn Thompson
- Chairperson: Ben Roth

MISSION

In order to fulfill our vision, the Hockey Club Fairbanks will:

1. Provide a fun, safe, supervised atmosphere for hockey instruction that emphasizes skill development for all Club players.
2. Build partnerships with parents to support the individual needs of each hockey player.
3. Provide trained, accountable coaches at each level of play.
4. Use finances wisely to accomplish Club goals.
5. Promote the sport of hockey and the value of the Hockey Club Fairbanks in our community.

GOALS

OVERALL

- Create an environment in Fairbanks that encourages players to develop a love of hockey for life
- Grow the game of hockey in our community by increasing the number of players
- Strive to become a USAH Model Association
- Control the cost of hockey at all levels

GOALS

2016-2017

- Create the HCF brand and unify all players with a HCF jersey
- Operate and provide financial oversight for the 6U and 8U program
- Develop a model to maximize ice usage and allocation
- Implement a coaching education system to encourage mentoring of coaches at all levels of youth hockey to improve coaching for all players
- Host a public contest for the new HCF mascot

VISION

Promote the long-term development of hockey players
by providing on-ice and off-ice training that allow each player to maximize his or her potential;
develop a lifelong love of the game;
while providing positive lessons that allow them to excel in life.

CORE VALUES

The Hockey Club Fairbanks will operate according to the following key organizational values:

- CHAMPIONS OF CHARACTER. If all we do is teach hockey, we have missed a great opportunity.
- COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE. Each member of the organization should seek to perform to the highest level of his or her ability.
- ENJOYMENT. The hockey experience should be fun, satisfying and rewarding for all participants.
- RESPECT. Treat the game, ourselves, teammates, coaches, officials, opponents and spectators as you expect to be treated.
- INTEGRITY. Do right, regardless of cost or outcome.
- LEADERSHIP. Recognize we are ambassadors of the game and our players, coaches, and leader's actions reflect our organization, our community and our state.
- SPORTSMANSHIP. Organization members should be humble in victory and gracious in defeat.
- FISCALLY RESPONSIBLE. Hockey Club Fairbanks will be operated without financial gain to anyone.
- TRANSPARENCY. Decision making and communications will be conducted with openness and candor.

USA HOCKEY — KENNY RAUSCH

Kenny Rausch joined the USA Hockey staff full-time in July 2009 as manager of youth hockey. In this position, Rausch supports the organization's youth programs and initiatives to further develop hockey in the United States.

Prior to joining USA Hockey on a full-time basis, Rausch:

- Coached at numerous USA Hockey Boys' Select Player Development Camps
- Coached the U.S. Under-18 Select Team at the 2004 and 2005 Junior World Cups
- Served as an assistant coach at Babson College
- Played at Boston University
