Empower Leadership Academy Partners with Blaze Basketball

Empower Leadership Academy, with former University of Minnesota Girls Basketball Coach, Pam Borton, will be partnering with Burnsville Girls Basketball to provide leadership training for middle school and high school aged girls. Empower’s mission is to inspire, develop, and empower the next generation of leaders.

Every girl deserves to live a confident, fulfilling, and authentic life. Our mission is to empower our girls into the leaders of tomorrow. Like any skill, leadership and self-confidence take practice and preparation. We provide a safe and fun environment to learn, be inspired and to grow personally.

Four Pillars of Empowerment

Leadership
She will identify her personal strengths and values, which are the foundation for developing leadership skills.

Confidence
She will learn how focusing on her strengths and using positive self-talk will help her develop the confidence needed to be a leader.

Resilience
She will learn about resilience and what it takes to bounce back after difficult circumstances, which will prepare her for tackling future challenges.

Wellbeing
She will discover how mindfulness, movement, building healthy relationships and contributing to the community are all essential to her wellbeing.
