Basecamp Software - Cory

The interface is organized into several panels:

- Campfire: A chat window titled 'writers go on monday!' with a timestamp of '12:54 AM - 6 Oct 2015'. It shows messages from Annie Bryan and Matthew Coxy.
- Message Board: A list of recent posts, including 'Listeners This Week - Episode 14 launched, just', 'New iTunes description copy - What's the hardest thing', 'Change the name/branding - There's some talk about re-', and 'Future Episode Idea? - I had an idea for a future episode, Net'.
- To-dos: A section with 14/41 items, including 'Newsletter updates' (with checkboxes for 'Link to iTunes', 'Signup page', 'Unique subject lines', and 'Inspiration section'), and 'Ideas to Boost Listenership' (with checkboxes for 'Audience survey', 'Podcast partnerships', and 'Editorial collaborations').
- Schedule: A calendar view showing dates Dec 10, 11, 24, and 30, with tasks like 'Feature Artwork due to iTunes', 'Interview with Dan', and 'Annie on vacation'.
- Automatic Check-ins: A section titled 'What podcasts have you enjoyed lately?' with a poll 'Asking 8 people every other Friday at 6pm' and a 'Do you have any ideas for a future show?' poll 'Asking 8 people every Monday at 9am'.
- Docs & Files: A grid of document thumbnails, including 'Music Usage' and 'Final Over...'.
