The Mission of the AYL Baseball Board

We are a community baseball program that works hard to provide the best competition, umpires, and fields for the development of youth athletes within the AYL member club territories, while maintaining the spirit of community (neighborhood) teams competing against each other. To support this mission, AYL offers three levels of competitive baseball, our Majors and AAA divisions (Competitive) as well as the AA division (Developmental). The Majors division shall be limited to the top eight (8) teams; the AAA division shall be limited to ten (10) teams; however, a split AAA (American and National) division shall be offered if warranted and based upon team numbers and field availability. All Majors division teams within the specific age group is determined by the baseball board. The AAA division will consist of all remaining teams participating in the AYL as determined by the baseball board. The AA developmental division is open to all remaining players who wish to participate.

The Board has made and will continue to make efforts to update and amend the AYL rules for accuracy and to adapt to current and relevant new rules for each new baseball season.

These; the AYL rules are provided “as is” and to the fullest extent applicable are the guiding principles for AYL Baseball, however, the board retains broad discretion and does reserve the right to make change, amend and/or to make exception to any rule as deemed necessary, without limitation by looking at any circumstance that warrants such action. These changes, including change in content, description, terms, etc. may be made at any time without notice by a majority board vote.

The AYL Baseball rules are governed by the AYL By-Laws and General Principles of Operation, which take precedence over these rules. All non-baseball league rules are addressed in the AYL General Principles of Operation (GPO). All references to the Board will mean the AYL Baseball Board and/or its Delegates.

The current edition of the “National Federation of High School Associations Baseball Rule Book” shall govern all situations not addressed by the AYL General, Division & Age Specific Baseball Rules.
