

Biography – Coach Bryn Britton

Coach Bryn played Division I basketball at Loyola Marymount University. During her four years at LMU, Bryn became the women's basketball All-Time leading scorer (1,661 points) as well as the first player in LMU history to reach 1,500 points. Other collegiate accolades include being a 4-time All-West Coast Conference selection and a 2-time Kodak All-American Nominee. Britton is the only Lion to be named First Team All-West Coast Conference three times in her career. Appearing in 119 of the team's 120 games in her four years at LMU, she led the Lions in scoring in each of her four seasons, setting records in each year for most points by a member of her class. Along with being the school's all-time leading scorer, she is first in field goals, second in scoring average, and third in assists and three-point baskets. She also holds three top-10 individual point totals and scoring averages for a season.

Bryn continued her basketball career in the European Professional League (Luxembourg) where she was 2nd in the country in scoring. She competed in the WNBA training camp for the Detroit Shock before returning to Europe (Germany) for a second International season, finishing 12th in scoring and 4th in assists in the country. In February of 2009, Bryn was just the third female basketball player to be inducted into the LMU Hall of Fame. In 2002, Bryn graduated from LMU with a Bachelor's degree in English and a minor in Business.
