

Evanston Youth Hockey Association: Social Media Policy

The Evanston Youth Hockey Association (EYHA) understands and appreciates the importance of social networking as it relates to the personal and professional lives of its members and its stakeholders. This immediate and public forum provides unique opportunities for networking and promotion; however, it also provides an unsupervised medium for inappropriate conduct to occur. This conduct may be deemed detrimental to the welfare of EYHA, its membership and not in the best interests of the game. EYHA holds its entire membership who participates in online social networking to the same standards as it would with all forms of communication, including television, radio and print.

For the purposes for this policy, key definitions are as follows:

Online social networking: an online service, platform or site that allows users to share information, ideas, comments, events or media.

Evanston Youth Hockey Association (EYHA) Membership: people who are directly involved in activities of the organization, including coaches, team managers, team support staff, players, parents, guardians and administrative staff.

These policies are designed to protect all parties from harassment, bullying, stalking, inappropriate contact or behavior, however they are intended.

The following are some examples of behavior in online social networking mediums that will result in appropriate disciplinary action at the discretion of the EYHA Rules & Ethics Committee:

- Posting or divulging confidential information that includes but is not limited to: member's personal information, contact information, medical conditions, injuries and/or other sensitive matters pertinent to EYHA and its membership.
- Posting negative or derogatory comments about any of EYHA or competing programs' staff, programs, members, stakeholders or program participants.
- Posting photographs, video or comments regarding fights, penalties or other in-game incidents.
- Posting photographs, video or comments promoting negative influences or criminal behavior including but not limited to: drug use, alcohol abuse, public intoxication, sexual exploitation, etc.
- Participating in any online activity that contradicts the current policies of or guidelines set forth by EYHA.
- Posting any inappropriate, derogatory, racist or sexist comments contradictory to Evanston Hockey's policies on these matters.

EYHA members should assume at all times that they are representing Evanston Hockey. Members are expected to demonstrate discretion and respect over these sites; if a photo or comment would be inappropriate for all other forms of media, then it should be considered inappropriate for online social networking sites. Any material, comments or actions through these portals deemed inappropriate will be reviewed by the EYHA Rules & Ethics Committee for possible sanctions up to and including suspension and/or expulsion from the program.

Adopted July 2018