

2013 Dighton Baseball Invitational

8 Year old Tournament Rules

Eligibility/Roster/Format

1. The tournament is in “round robin” format, with all teams’ guaranteed four games (4th game is weather pending).
2. The field of teams will be divided into Five “brackets”. The winners of each bracket (as determined by win/loss record followed by tie-breakers) will advance. The 4th and 5th ranked teams. from the bracket winners, have a play in game for the opportunity to play in the semis. Then, 1 vs 4/5,& 2 vs 3.
3. In case of a tie between two or more teams in one bracket, the following tiebreaker rules shall apply in the descending order.
 - A) Head to head (win/lose record)
 - B) Least number of runs allowed (in first 3 games)
 - C) Coin toss
4. Eligible players: All players may not exceed the age of 8 by April 30, 2013.
5. Rosters are limited to 15 players maximum, 11 players minimum.
6. DBSL reserves the right to alter or change schedule at any time, as much notification as possible of changes will be made.
7. DBSL does not provide insurance for participants. All players and coaches should be covered by their own insurance.
8. The Tournament Director reserves the right to alter or change the schedule or field at any time prior to, or during the tournament dates.
9. All teams are required to play scheduled consolation games. It is unfair to the opponent when teams do not show up. Unexcused ‘No Shows’ may result in a one year suspension from tournaments. Please plan on playing! It is a great time to mix up your batting order and pitching. Advance notice is absolutely required.

Safety/Equipment

1. Headgear must be worn at all times both at bat and on bases.
2. Metal spikes shall not be worn on playing surface or in dugout.
3. All players must wear team uniform and hats.
4. All players must wear helmets whenever they are using the batting cages.

Tournament Play

Game Time Limits (Round Robin)

1. No new inning can start after 1 hour 45 minutes and games should be completed within 2hrs and 15 minutes.
2. The time of the game will start with the first pitched ball of the game
3. Home team should confirm start time and enter time in scorebook for games that start late or early.
4. With ten (10) minutes left in the game, the home plate umpire should notify both Managers of the time remaining.
5. The next inning starts as soon as the third out has been made in the previous inning, not when the teams have re-taken the field.
6. If the result is a tie after completion of the inning, each team receives 1 point in the standings (2 points for a win).

Pitching:

1. Pitcher is allowed to pitch a maximum of 6 innings in consecutive games, with no more than 4 innings in any one game. (I.e. Mike pitches 2 innings in game #1 he would be eligible to pitch 4 innings in game #2, In game #3 he is only allowed to pitch a maximum of 2 innings).
2. One pitch in any inning shall count as an inning pitched.
3. Only the starting pitcher may re-enter the game as a pitcher. Other relief pitchers may not re-enter as a pitcher in the same game.
4. Pitching tracking sheets will be handed out before first game and must be filled out by manager/coach (with ink) and signed by opposing manager/coach at the conclusion of every game. Tracking sheets will be furnished upon request at any time by either opposing manager/coach, Tournament Director or Assistant Tournament Director. All forms must be filled out with ink and can only be changed by Tournament Director or Assistant Tournament Director. Any teams pitcher pitching beyond his/her maximum innings will be declared a forfeit (score of 6-0)
5. No balks will be called
6. If an illegal pitch is made pitcher may be warned at umpires discretion and it will be declared a no pitch. If same pitcher continues, a ball will be added to count at every offense.
7. A second trip by manager or coach to the same pitcher in the same inning or fourth trip in the same game requires removal of the pitcher from the pitching position.
8. Pitcher must be removed from that position if pitcher hits 3 batters in one inning or 5 batters in one game.

Base Running:

1. Slide or avoid at any base (except first) if a play is about to develop.
2. Headfirst sliding is not allowed except when runner is returning to a base.
3. If a runner is injured while running the bases or being hit by pitch, a courtesy runner will be allowed. This pinch runner must be the player who made last out. Injured player may not return in the same game. No penalty at the batting line-up, just skip the batter in scorebooks.
4. If a team catcher is a base runner with 2 outs, he must be replaced with courtesy runner in order to put gear on and keep the game moving (Also, runner must be the last out).
5. Base runners may steal second, third and home on a pitch after either hitting the ground or crossing the plate on any plane.
6. As soon as forward progress has ceased by a runner attempting to steal he/she must return back to base last occupied. (Especially, no taunting at 3rd! It slows the game down)

General:

1. Four outfielders may be used.
2. Infield fly rule is not in effect
3. Continuous batting order must be used.
4. Injuries while batting continuous does not result in an out.
5. Four runs maximum per inning per team may be scored. Last inning is open.
6. A 10 run lead after four inning (3 ½ if home team is ahead) will be considered a complete game (this rule does not apply in semi-finals or finals unless losing manager deems necessary). Home team must get its last at bat, if the home team is losing by 10 or more.
7. Ball will be declared dead when a defensive player is injured by batted ball, offensive players will advance one base.
8. Every player in line-up must play 6 defensive outs. (rule is waived if game ends before 6 innings per rule #5)
9. No slash bunting will be allowed. If attempted the ball is dead, the batter is out and no runners may advance.
10. Any player warming up pitchers must wear mask with helmet, coaching bases must wear helmet.
11. Any team that is unable to field a team of 8 players by 15 minutes after the scheduled start time will forfeit game 6-0
