MIYBL Identification Badge Policy for Volunteers

In order to easily identify CORI checked MIYBL volunteers, the league will now be issuing badges to all personnel once they have cleared their CORI check on a yearly basis. MIYBL volunteers will now be required to wear their badge at all games and practices to identify themselves as league volunteers cleared to be with the children on the field. No one without a badge shall be allowed in the dugout or on the field with the children at any time. It is incumbent upon the manager of each team to ensure each coach has received their badge before they are allowed to be on the practice or game field. Managers caught in violation of this policy will be suspended for 1 game on the first offense. Remember, 2 game suspensions in the same season is grounds for stripping the manager of his/her position.

PROCEDURE:

- Fill out the CORI form and submit the hard paper copy in person to the league Secretary. CORI forms can be found on the league website at <http://maplewoodbaseball.net> in the Documents section. It is not recommended that you save this form electronically if you fill it out on your computer unless you're comfortable encrypting it.
- While the Secretary is busy processing your CORI form (may take a week or longer), submit a photo to the league's Player Agent (MIYBL.PlayerAgent@comcast.net) Photo should be in portrait format, 3:4 aspect ratio and should clearly show your face. No hats or sunglasses allowed, they will be rejected. Please also indicate in this email what roles (Manger or Coach) and what Teams you will be volunteering on so the badge can be as accurate as possible.
- Once the League Secretary give's the CORI OK to the Player Agent, the badge for that volunteer will be created. Badges will be issued at league meetings or at the park as required.

Three examples of MIYBL identification badges are shown, each with a white background and a colored border. Each badge features a grey silhouette of a person's head and shoulders on the left. To the right of the silhouette is the Maplewood Independent Youth Baseball League logo. Below the logo, the name and role of the volunteer are listed. To the right of the text is a small icon representing the team or organization. The first badge is for Bob Example, a coach for the Minor Red Sox and Rookie Rays, with a red Sox icon. The second badge is for Joe Fiction, a manager for Rookie Athletics and Tee Ball Rattlers, with an Athletics icon. The third badge is for Billy Pretender, a board member for the Technology Director and Major Orioles, with an Orioles icon.
