The Semi-finals and Finals will be held at Camp Sienna and hosted by Fort Bend Panthers Lacrosse on Saturday May 5th.

On the following pages of this packet, there are maps, schedules, brackets, safety notes, and other useful information about the Playoffs. Camp Sienna has ample parking, but we encourage all Playoffs participants to carpool as much as possible. Teams are asked to please set up their tents in the designated “Team Areas”. Spectators are asked to watch the games from the bleacher side of each field only. Enthusiasm and cheering from the spectators is encouraged, but please respect fellow spectators, players, and officials. Honor our great game of lacrosse.

Medical staff, security personnel, and a multitude of volunteers will be on site assisting with the Playoffs. In the event of an emergency, please find a GHYLA or Fort Bend Panthers Lacrosse official for help.

PLAYOFFS RULES AND POLICIES

SITE ADMINISTRATOR

Both teams are to provide a Site Administrator for games. The Site Administrator is to present himself/herself to the officials prior to the opening faceoff. The Site Administrators will be responsible for jointly addressing each group of fans by reading the Site Administrator Message. They are also responsible for the administration of the Yellow Card and/or Red Card program. Unsportsmanlike conduct by a parent, family member, or friend of a player that results in said parent, family member or friend of player receiving a "Red Card" will result in the player being ejected from the Playoffs.

- First infraction by an individual will result in a warning and receipt of a "Yellow Card."
- Second infraction by the same individual will result in receipt of a "Red Card" and the individual, plus his/her affiliated player will be asked to vacate the area.

Failure to follow the Site Administrator rules and instructions that results in the issuance of a "Red Card" will result in the affiliated player being removed from the playoffs.

UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT

Unsportsmanlike conduct by coaches and/or players will not be tolerated. Players and coaches will exhibit the highest level of sportsmanship at all times. Any player or coach who uses derogatory or profane language on the field or bench, whether addressing a player, coach, or official may receive an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty or an expulsion foul. Obscenities need not be used for language to draw a penalty. Tone, intent, and body language can all contribute to unsportsmanlike conduct.

EJECTION

Any player or coach ejected from a game by an official will be suspended for their next scheduled game. The second time a player or coach is ejected from a game will result in suspension for the remainder of the Playoffs and must leave the venue. An ejection is not the same as a penalty disqualification.

GAME TERMINATION

Officials can end a game in response to flagrant acts of unsportsmanlike behavior including excessively rough behavior by coaches, athletes, spectators, or fans. If possible, game officials will issue at least one (1) strong warning that the game is in danger of being terminated. However, games may be terminated on the first instance of a flagrant unsportsmanlike act.

To demonstrate compliance with this requirement, the Site Administrator is to administer the "Yellow Card" and "Red Card" program.

GAMES ENDING IN TIES

In the event of a tie at the end of a regulation game, play shall be continued, after a two-minute intermission, with sudden-victory overtime. In sudden-victory overtime, teams shall play periods of four minutes each until a goal is scored, thus deciding a winner. The game ends upon the scoring of the first goal. There will be a two-minute intermission between sudden-victory periods.

MERCY RULE – RUNNING CLOCK

Games in which one (1) team is ahead of the other team by ten (10) points in the second half (or starting the third quarter) will convert to running clock.

HEAT-RELATED INJURIES ~ PREVENTION AND TREATMENT

One of the biggest concerns for lacrosse players is preventing heat injuries. Such incidents can be prevented with a few simple steps, which are described in this article to keep coaches, players and officials in the game.

What are Heat-related Injuries?

Normally, our bodies produce a tremendous amount of internal heat, which is cooled by sweating and expelling heat through the skin. When there is extreme heat, high humidity or vigorous activity in the hot sun, this cooling system may begin to fail, and allow heat to build up to dangerous levels. Heat injuries manifest themselves in a number of forms, from mild symptoms to life-threatening conditions.

- Heat Cramps: Heat cramps are muscle contractions, usually occurring in the calf or hamstring muscles. These contractions are forceful and painful. They are typically related to heat, dehydration, and poor conditioning. Treatment for cramps is simple: rest, drink water and get to a cool environment.
- Heat Exhaustion: Heat exhaustion stems from excessive heat and dehydration. Its symptoms can be detected in the appearance and activities of your players during practice or a game. The range of symptoms includes nausea, dizziness, weakness, headache, heavy perspiration, normal or low body temperature, weak pulse, dilated pupils, disorientation, and fainting spells. Treat heat exhaustion by getting the person to a cool or shady environment, drinking liquids and applying cool water or ice to the body. Most people respond to these treatments, but prompt attention is necessary in order to prevent the condition from progressing to heat stroke. More severely heat-exhausted patients may need IV fluids, especially if they cannot drink enough.
- Heat Stroke: Heat stroke, the most serious form of all heat-related conditions, is a life-threatening medical emergency. A person with heat stroke usually has a very high temperature (over 104 degrees) and along with the other symptoms above, may be delirious, unconscious or having seizures. These patients need to reduce their temperature quickly and must also be given IV fluids for rehydration. Take them to a hospital as quickly as possible – although cooling treatments need to be started immediately and continue until emergency medical personnel can take over. In addition to applying ice, another form of cooling in this case is “evaporative cooling” where the person is sponged or misted with cool water and fanned to encourage rapid evaporation.

Lacrosse Players are Vulnerable

Because lacrosse is a warm-weather running sport, lacrosse participants are at risk for heat illnesses – especially goalies with helmets. Coaches can take a number of steps to prevent heat-related injuries:

1. Recognize the dangers of playing in the heat.
2. Schedule regular fluid breaks during practice and games. Players should be hydrated prior to the start of games or practices and to continue to drink eight ounces of fluid every 20 minutes during the activity with water or sports drinks.
3. Players should avoid soda, caffeine drinks and alcohol before or during games, as these can promote dehydration.

4. Make player substitutions more frequently in the heat.
5. Have players wear light-colored, “breathable” clothing.
6. For goalies “helmet breaks” every 30 minutes to ensure that heat in the helmets gets released. Just as your mother told you to wear a hat in winter so “90% of the heat would not be lost through the top of your head,” the converse is true in summer – wearing a helmet keeps in a great deal of heat that the body is trying to expel.
7. Use misting water sprays to keep players cool.
8. In the early part of the season, particularly in warm, humid climates, acclimate players slowly to the heat. Play at cooler times of day, and build up players’ tolerance to heat a little more each day. If you are attending the Playoffs in a climate that is hotter than you are used to, go early (if possible) to help the team adapt and be vigilant about enforcing preventative measures.
9. And always, respond quickly if heat-related injuries occur.

Before we start the game, we wanted to take a moment to remind everyone that each of use plays an important role in the success of our teams and the development in each of our players. By being here today, we recognize that you are passionate about the game, your team and the players you support. In doing so, we want to remind each of you to keep your comments directed towards the field and in the spectator area positive, encouraging and respectful of all players, coaches, officials, spectators and everyone involved in the game.

By rule, each team must designate a Site Administrator. The purpose of the Site Administrator is to monitor the behavior of spectators for their given team. If the behavior or language of spectators cannot be managed, by rule, Site Administrators will restrict spectators to a designated area with a buffer zone in between and issue the spectator a “Yellow Card”. A “Yellow Card” is a warning, or physical reminder, to the spectator to remain positive and respectful.

If the spectator cannot correct her behavior, the spectator will be issued a “Red Card” and asked to leave the facility. We ask that the spectators respect the card system. If such system is not respected, the police will be summoned to the facility to escort the spectator from the facility. Unsportsmanlike conduct by a parent, family member, or friend of a player that results in said parent, family member or friend of player receiving a “Red Card” will result in the player being ejected from the Playoffs.
