As a coach with the RYFL organization, I understand and agree to the following:

- If approved by the RYFL Board, the coaching position is approved for only one season.
- I will abide by and promote the RYFL organizations mission, goals, rules, and procedures, as outlined by the leagues By-Laws.
- I will exhibit good sportsmanship, self-control and act in a professional manner at all RYFL organizations sponsored games, practices, and events.
- As a coach of the RYFL organization, I will support, promote and participate in the league activities and fundraisers.
- All coaching applicants must submit a new background verification form.
- Coaches will agree to not use any drugs, alcohol or tobacco products before or during practice, game time or any football/cheer events.

(Coaching applications will not be accepted if not filled out completely and signed)

If approved as a coach, I understand that I may be required to attend a football coach’s clinic, I must be CPR and first aid certified as well as gone through concussion awareness. I further agree that if appointed as coach, I am responsible for knowing, understanding, communicating, and abiding by the “Coaches Code of Conduct” as set forth in the RYFL rules.
