

Amy Fortney
Assistant Program Director, High School Coach

Amy Fortney joins the Frisco Fury family in June 2021 after finishing her sixth year with the Plano Premier Girls Lacrosse program. As the program director and head varsity coach, she led the team to the TGHSLL state tournament four times from 2015-2019. The Plano Premier Varsity team went to district and state semifinals in 2016, was the North District Championship runner up and a state semifinalist in 2017, had the program's most successful year in 2018 and then made the Texas State tournament again in 2019. The 2018 team finished second in the North District and second in the state of Texas. Amy is also a coach for GRIT Lacrosse in Dallas, where she coaches the 2023 and 2027 teams.

Prior to moving to Texas, she coached at East Ridge High School in Woodbury, Minnesota, where she started the program and led the team to the District Finals in its inaugural year in 2012 and again in 2013. While in Minnesota, she coached for MN Elite, the premier girls club program in Minnesota.

Amy also coached at the St. Andrew's School in Boca Raton, FL from 2007-2011, and also spent a year at The Godolphin School in Salisbury, England working as a lacrosse coach and physical education teacher.

Amy is a Syracuse, NY native and received her Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from the University of Kansas in 2002 before obtaining her master's degree in education in 2005 from Kansas. Amy came to Texas to work at Southern Methodist University as the academic counselor for the men's basketball team. She made a career change to teaching in 2016 and is now the special education department head at Plano Senior High School in Plano.
