

Braves Player Commitment & Refund Policy:

Braves Travel Baseball Organization Player Commitment & Refund Policy is as follows:

1. All Braves Players are required to sign a commitment letter with commitment fee to secure participation on a Braves Travel Team. This commitment fee is non-refundable and non-transferrable.
2. If a Player does not sign a commitment letter or return commitment fee within 72 hours of Braves Offer Letter - Braves Organization will move on to other qualifying offers and said player's offer will be withdrawn.
3. Once a player has committed with their commitment letter and initial commitment fee to the Braves Organization, said player has secured his spot on the team and with a spot secured on a team - The Braves organization is unable to offer that position to other qualified players.
4. After a Braves player commits with said letter and fees - If a player decides to withdraw or quit - they have jeopardized each individual braves team by withdrawing and leaving the team with limited players or not enough players for their season.
5. Please Note: If a players quits at any time jeopardizing team with limited players for season, family will be held liable for remaining season registration fees if full-balance has not been paid.

6. NO REFUNDS ONCE PLAYERS HAVE COMMITTED.

NO EXCEPTIONS!

Player Name _____

Parent Name _____

Parent Signature _____ Date _____