The mission of the Westport Police Athletic League is to sponsor youth athletic activities and thereby to promote opportunities for positive relationship building between our community's young people and the officers and staff of the Westport Police Department. Everything we do on an all-volunteer basis is about building a better community.

Chief Samuel Luciano, a native of Saugatuck and a lifelong Westport resident, joined the Westport Police Department in 1937, was named chief in 1957 and served in that post until his sudden and untimely death in November 1970. Chief Luciano was a strong supporter of the PAL and was instrumental in the establishment of the Connecticut State Police Academy.

For more than half a century, the PAL annually sponsors the Chief Samuel Luciano Memorial Golf Tournament in his honor. The proceeds from this event fund our athletic and scholarship programs for the children of Westport and surrounding communities.
