AA Draft - Rounding 3rd and Heading for Home!

The AA Draft is this Sunday and once that draft takes place, the rest of the teams will be formed and announced shortly thereafter. Its a very busy week ahead for league directors so please bear with us!

2013 Spring Sponsorship Drive

With less than two weeks remaining for teams to all be formed, there are still opportunities to sponsor Single A, Rookie, and T-Ball teams but we are now on vapors - time is starting to run out!

If you are interested in supporting the league through sponsorship, the 2013 Sponsorship Form can be accessed here (and it may also be downloaded from the Documents section of our website).

The League History Book – Any Day Now!

For those of you who pre-ordered your league history book through the on-line registration process, congratulations! The book will hit the streets next week. Your copy will be available for pick up at Opening Day Ceremony on April 6th as promised. A table will be set up for that purpose.

For those of you who passed up on this opportunity, what can we say??

Any unsold copies will be available at Opening Day at the price of 25 USD per book.

This booklet will quickly become a keepsake for players, parents and coaches who have shared in the VLL experience. This publication is a limited-edition.

Support Our Sponsors Contest – Your purchases can be turned into entries for cash awards in this contest

Did you know that when you visit a league sponsor and provide them with your business, your receipts can be turned into entries for you and/or your player to win valuable awards at the final drawing (which will be held on May 11th at Yeonas Park). The more entries the more opportunities to win!

A list of current sponsors can be found at the tab "Sponsors Directory" (left side of home page) along with contest rules and awards. Simply submit your proof of purchase to Brian Smith @ vllsponsorship@gmail.com to obtain entries for your player to be considered for prizes in the contest. Its that easy! Sponsors are being added daily and prizes are being expanded on as well.

League Appreciation Weekend - Results

All reports indicate that we had an amazing VLL turnout this past weekend at the Tysons Corner Sports Authority for the League Appreciation Promotion. Even our alumni showed up to benefit from the savings to be had. Way to support a sponsor as well! Nothing like being at the top of our game!

Any questions? Please send your requests and comments to vl sponsorship@gmail.com.
