

2018 NJ Stars Season

Alex Rudolph From Davie, Florida, has played everything from A to Junior A. He was a two year captain and 3 year Varsity athlete for the nationally noticed high school St Thomas Aquinas. During his Senior year in high school he started playing junior hockey in Florida and then continued that path while moving to New Jersey. After a second year of juniors he decided he wanted to play for his college Seton Hall University as well as continue to pursue coaching. He brings a lot of experience to the table as he has learned a lot from top notch coaches all around the country. Started coaching at 17 helping out with Advanced Hockey Academy which is a skills camp year around then when he moved to New Jersey to play his second year of juniors he started helping out with woman's tier 1 rockets as a volunteer coach. Now with the New Jersey Stars he brings highly motivated attitude and is excited about what the future holds here!
