Please read and make sure you understand the following basic rules:

This is a job. players, parents and the club count on you.

- If you find yourself unable to attend your scheduled game, you need to;
  - If less than 6 days before the game, you will be responsible for finding your own replacement referee for the game/s. Once you have found a replacement referee, contact WYSC to get approval for the replacement ref.
  - If more than 7 days before the game, contact WYSC by phone and email. WYSC will try to help you find a replacement.
- If you arrive less than 15 minutes before the start of a game, WYSC will postpone payment of all pending fees until the end of the season.
- Referees, in good standing, will be paid ONCE during the season. After the end of season. If possible at WYSC's end-of-season banquet.
- Only the referee assigner can re-schedule game assignments.
- All recreational games are held Saturday or Sunday, at Athey fields, across the street from Fauquier H.S.

WYSC's primary concern is the safety of the players and referees.

As the game referee, you represent WYSC, your primary responsibility is the safety of all players, for each and every game. Dangerous play should never be allowed. It is your responsibility to control the game, and address any dangerous play.

Coaches or parent should never be allowed on the field without your previous permission.
