Our Policy

The Hull Youth Lacrosse is dedicated to promoting the sport of lacrosse for boys and girls participating in the Hull Youth Lacrosse program. We aspire to be an organization providing a high quality experience for every child, rooted in a culture striving for the highest personal integrity and physical fitness. Our core values include:

Providing equal opportunity for all players;

Creating a positive spirit of competition based on the principles of The Positive Coaching Alliance

Developing an appreciation for personal effort, commitment, and teamwork

By maintaining a positive and supportive environment provided by both coaches and parents, we seek to help our children develop exemplary behaviors they will carry through adulthood in the tradition of those who came before us.

Thank you for completing this application form along with the mandatory Town of Hull's CORI Form and for your interest in volunteering with us.
