Rain and the early leaders

The 2012 season proved to be one with lots of hot weather and very little rain.

The same can't be said of the 2013 season.

There have already been a number of games rained out and most of the games have already been rescheduled.

Please check www.bjbaseball.com for the updated schedule.

The defending champion Kansas City SportsClub Blues are among the league leaders again.

The Blues came into the season with a 19-game winning streak and they won their first eight games this season in action through June 17.

"We are fortunate to have been invited to play in the Ban Johnson League," manager Chris Faddis said. "We need to do our part in upholding its standards and traditions. This is a great league and we want to continue our affiliation for many years to come."

Faddis says that it is hard to single out any players as being keys to the team's success. He noted that everyone on the team has been key in certain situations.

"With our players departures from last year, we needed our new players to step up and they have in big ways," Faddis said. "Our players from last year have continued to elevate their games even more and have proved to be a stabilizing force for the team."

Seaboard won the league championship in 2011 and finished second to the Kansas City SportsClub Blues last season.

Notes from around the league

Players taken in draft

There were three Ban Johnson League players taken in the MLB First-Year Player Draft in June.

Pitcher Ryne Stanek, who was on the Building Champions roster in 2010, was the 29th pick overall in the draft by Tampa Bay. Stanek played three years at Arkansas.

He was drafted in the third round in 2010 by Seattle after graduation from Blue Valley High School.

Pitcher Lee Ridenhour was picked by the Twins in 2008 when he graduated from Shawnee Mission West. This year the Austin Peay, JCCC and Kansas pitcher was picked in the 16th round by the Phillies. He played for the Midwest Orioles in 2011 and 2012.

Logan Gray, Rockhurst High School shortstop, was taken in the 25th round by the Royals. He plays for Building Champions.

All-Star game is July 21

The BJ All-Star Game is set for July 21 at Kauffman Stadium.

The game will be played prior to the Royals-Tigers game.

Look for more details in the future issues of the Beacon.

Bell in College World Series

NKC Apartments pitcher/first baseman Evan Bell is playing for Indiana in the College World Series.

The freshman from Blue Valley High School posted a 1-0 record with an ERA of 3.41 for the Hoosiers in the regular season.

Spring player honors

There are a number of Ban Johnson League players that achieved honors for their college or high school in the spring.

Here is a look at some those honors reported to the Beacon:

(We will have more in a future issue of the Beacon).

* Building Champions shortstop Logan Gray was a first team Missouri All-State utility player for Rockhurst High School.

* Building Champions pitcher Colin Frederick was a second team Class 5A pitcher for Blue Valley Southwest.

* Building Champions utility player Kyle Stonestreet was All-Sunflower League for Shawnee Mission West.

* Building Champions outfielder Tucker Howard an All-East Kansas League honorable mention pick for Blue Valley North.

* Building Champions shortstop Jackson Schnurbusch was an All-Conference shortstop for Lee's Summit West.

* Natural Baseball Academy infielder Bobby Wernes was a NJCAA Juco World Series participant for Neosho County CC. He was a All-Jayhawk Conference first team pick and an NJCAA All-Region VI second team pick.

* There is a movement here in the greater Kansas City area to get legendary Kansas City Royals' second baseman Frank White into the MLB Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.

The slick fielding White has not come close to enough votes to make it into the Hall, but that hasn't stop a petition movement here in Kansas City.

White played for Feld Chevrolet in the Ban Johnson League.

The website is frankwhiteforthehalloffame.com. There is a petition that fans can sign.

* Jeff Cornell was inducted into the Midwest Scouts Hall of Fame in December of 2012.

The induction came at the organization's annual dinner at Kauffman Stadium.

He scouts for the Rays and played for Guys in the Ban Johnson League.

* Teacher and pupil met in the semifinals of the Kansas Class 6A state tournament in May.

The teacher was Blue Valley West coach Bill McDonald, while the pupil was Blue Valley coach Tony Scardino.

BV West won the game 2-0 and went on to beat Olathe South 8-0 to win the state championship.

McDonald's Jaguars didn't allow a run in the three state tournament games.

McDonald started the baseball program at Shawnee Mission South in 1974 and Scardino was one of his players.

Scardino was an assistant coach for McDonald until taking the Blue Valley job this past school year.

McDonald was a pitcher for Katz in the BJ in the early 60s. One of his coaches was legendary Ban Johnson League manager Pat Nolan.

Scardino played for Butternut Bread in the BJ and manager Carl Blando. He played 1977-1979 in the league.

Shelley achieves coaching honor

Kent Shelley, who has been the Johnson County Community College head baseball coach for the past 26 years, was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Hall of Fame in ceremonies in Chicago on Jan. 4.

Shelley, who had a record of 759-476-1 record going into the 2013 season, played in Ban Johnson League for Kansas City Life.

Many of his JCCC players have played in the Ban Johnson League down through the years.

“Being inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in Chicago, was a wonderful and exciting experience for me,” he said. “This honor wasn’t about me but about the players, assistant coaches, administration and staff and my family.

“I was blessed in Chicago to have in attendance with me, 25 of my family, friends, former players and assistant coaches, my president and his wife as well as my current assistant coaches. It was great having them in Chicago to share in this most wonderful honor and to take part in the ceremony.”

The former catcher for Pratt Community College and the University of Kansas remembers his days in the Ban Johnson League.

Shelley was a catcher for Kansas City Life in 1979 and 1980.

How did he get involved with the Ban Johnson League?

“I was playing at the University of Kansas when coach John Renko came calling. I remember that the Ban Johnson League for fielding highly competitive teams and giving an opportunity for college age kids a place to continue honing their fundamentals and skills.”

Shelley was pleased with the coaching he received in the Ban Johnson League.

“I had a great manager in John Stipetich,” he said. “He had assembled a great staff of assistant coaches who continued to work with me both offensively as well as helping me to grow as a catcher.

“My teammates were a great group of guys who respected the game, who enjoyed playing together and just loved the game of baseball.”

What is his greatest memory of his two years in the Ban Johnson League?

“I was selected as an Ban Johnson League All-Star and playing in Kauffman Stadium and representing KC Life,” he said. “I also remember taking a little heat from the great, George Toma, for my uniform because it looked like the Oakland A’s back then.”

Rain and the early leaders

The team hasn't fared well with the weather playing just six games through June 17.

"We have only played six games because of the weather so haven't had a large sample size by any means," manager Will Meier said. "In those games, we have had a good mix of starting pitching with some efficient offense to produce enough runs. I would say that our defense has definitely been a key to limiting our opponents' scoring as well. We hope to continue this formula as the season progresses."

Meier mentioned second baseman Braden Brown, outfielder Tim Lewis and first baseman Zach Girrens.

The Milgram Mustangs are in the middle of the race, having played 11 games through June 18.

Manager Kevin Shaw said that the Mustangs are loose and having a lot of fun in the early going.

They were 9-2 in games through June 18.

Clarke O'Dowd, Zac Shaw and Spencer Booe were among the hitting leaders while pitchers Ryan Lasneske and Matt Richie are among the pitching leaders.
