OLD BUSINESS:

- September 2014, Meeting Minutes were read and accepted without changes.
- UMASS Sales and marketing team came to talk about opportunities for the league to go to some games.
 - Tickets are starting at $6/ each.
 - They have preliminary games and things available for teams to do.
 - They passed out the home schedule and information.
 - Contact them if your team or organization is interested.
- Renegade brands- Odor Eliminator Salesman came to show their product.
 - They have fundraising opportunities.
 - You can also find the product at local stores.
 - They passed out samples for people to try.
- Midget Rosters were due 9/15.
 - Jeff Brown was not able to access them until 9/19 and there were 2 teams that were still not entered.
 - A motion was made and accepted to ignore the fact that the 2 teams were not entered.
 - This motion was made and accepted unopposed
- Teams need to claim their players on the registration program
- Timekeepers need to make sure they are writing down if there is a major penalty. The referees are to enter the major online as there are new progressive penalties. Referees can take a picture of the game sheet or make a copy as they don't have an official copy.
- Midget standing will be up next week.
- There are no mail boxes at rinks anymore. The home team needs to bring game sheets to the Olympia or mail them to Barbara Wright. Her mailing address is on the game sheets. Her email is masshockey@msn.com
- The suspension list is up to date.

 - The check for evaluations is $30, 000.
 - There was a motion made and accepted to have Jeff Brown be the second signatory for anything of $500.
- Scheduling

- Bantam schedule is out. Some changes may happen while Todd is finishing the regular season schedule for the other divisions.
- Todd wants to use up the morning ice before he's using afternoon ice.
- Always make sure your parents are checking the schedule.
- Hard rink divider rinks will be used to all Mite games or as much as possible.
- If your rink doesn't have hard dividers then other divisions will have more home games.
- There was a lot of discussion regarding the team placements. The following is what was finally decided.
- Pee Wee North- A motion was made and accepted to move Ludlow down to South. Even though there was discussion about moving a Holy Name South team up to North a motion was not passed.
