Criteria for Special Content Sessions

All criteria are scored using 5-point standard Likert scale with standard wording, for the start of every question:

5 – Strongly Agree

4 – Agree

3 – Neutral / Neither agree nor disagree

2 – Disagree

1 – Strongly Disagree

1. The proposal overall is clearly written and well-structured.	1	2	3	4	5
2. The project described in the abstract would be of interest to attendees from various types of health sciences libraries.	1	2	3	4	5
3. The selected program format is appropriate for the content.	1	2	3	4	5
4. The application clearly describes the logistical requirements of the session and provides a logistics contact.	1	2	3	4	5
5. The program will appeal to the target audience and target learner level.	1	2	3	4	5
6. The program description is interesting, inspiring, and/or important to conference attendees.	1	2	3	4	5
7. The program description shows originality and innovation.	1	2	3	4	5
8. The program is likely to attract a sufficient number of conference attendees.	1	2	3	4	5
9. The proposal clearly addresses a relevant and timely idea, issue, or need.	1	2	3	4	5
10. The overall outcomes of the program are specifically described.	1	2	3	4	5
11. Attendees at MLA '18 will benefit from the content of this program.	1	2	3	4	5