MLA ’12: Batter Up!

The 2012 National Program Committee (NPC) is excited to invite you to join us at MLA ’12 to explore “Growing Opportunities: Changing Our Game.” Slated for May 18–23, 2012, the 2012 annual meeting will be held in Seattle, WA. The 2012 NPC has been working with the Local Assistance Committee (LAC) to offer a great lineup in a terrific venue.

In calls for contributed papers and posters, we challenged (encouraged, urged) members to focus on challenges, successes, and trends in “Growing Opportunities: Changing Our Game.” The theme examines the convergence of sustainability in health sciences libraries with sports metaphors, particularly baseball. This convergence of game changing with sustainability offers members and sections the flexibility to examine these issues individually or where they intersect. We are excited to see what MLA members and sections will bring to the table.

With a nod to baseball, we have an excellent rotation of speakers. Leading off will be Steven Johnson, who focuses on the intersection of science, technology, and personal experience. On deck will be Mark E. Funk, AHIP, FMLA, who will deliver the Janet Doe Lecture sharing his perspective on the history and philosophy of medical librarianship. Batting cleanup will be T. R. Reid, who will anchor a Wednesday morning session devoted to exploring health care reform. Closing the meeting, roundtable programs will challenge MLA ’12 attendees to assess how health sciences librarians can grow their opportunities in the changing landscape of health care reform.

The 2012 NPC will build on the 2011 NPC’s successful integration of social media into sharing meeting content with each other, those registering for the online conference, and anyone who follows the #mlanet12 hashtag on Twitter. Last year, we saw questions via Twitter for speakers and commentaries from participants that enriched the meeting for all who followed social media focusing on the meeting. This year’s meeting will feature the Second Annual Tweet-up. Check out the Conference Community for more information about attending.

Join Team MLA in Seattle!

The Welcome Reception and Opening of the Exhibits will be our opening day, so help us kick off MLA ’12 in style by wearing your favorite team’s jersey to the event. If you coveted the MLA ’12 jerseys that the NPC and LAC wore in 2011, you will be able to purchase one at the Scholarship Booth. Wearing your jerseys will help launch networking among MLA ’12 attendees as you find fans of your team and of your chief rivals among your colleagues.

Year after year, MLA members consistently rate the opportunity to network as the greatest benefit to attending the annual meeting. Meeting at the corner of sustainability and game changing, we invite you to come, network, make new connections, and strengthen longstanding bonds, while learning from our speakers and your colleagues.

Teresa L. Knott, AHIP, and Michelle Kraft, AHIP, Cochairs, 2012 National Program Committee

Featured Speakers

Plenary Session II

Sunday, May 20, 10:30 a.m.–noon

John P. McGovern Award Lecturer: Steven Johnson

Sponsored by EBSCO

Steven Johnson is the best-selling author of seven books on the intersection of science, technology, and personal experience. His writings have influenced everything from the way political campaigns use the Internet, to cutting-edge ideas in urban planning, to the battle against 21st century terrorism.

Johnson’s newest book is titled, Where Good Ideas Come From: The Natural History of Innovation. From Darwin to YouTube, Johnson asks the questions:

- What kind of environment fosters the development of good ideas?
- What sparks the flash of brilliance?
- How does groundbreaking innovation happen?

His answers are never less than revelatory, convincing, and inspiring as Johnson identifies the seven key principles to the genesis of such ideas and traces them across time and disciplines.

His previous book, The Invention of Air: A Story of Science, Faith, Revolution, and the Birth of America, tells the story of Joseph Priestly, a scientist and theologian best known for discovering oxygen, and how innovative ideas emerge and spread in society and drive historical change. Like Johnson’s award-winning The Ghost Map, The Invention of Air uses a surprising historical and biographical narrative to discuss ideas that have profoundly shaped our modern world.

Both social critic and technologist, Johnson has a genius for mapping the future—for predicting and explaining the real-world impact of cutting-edge developments in science, technology, and media. He is a contributing editor to Wired magazine and lectures widely on technological, scientific, and cultural issues. Johnson has also written for the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Nation, and many other periodicals. He has appeared on many high-profile television programs, including Charlie Rose, the Daily Show with Jon Stewart, and PBS NewsHour with Jim Lehrer. He recently won the fourth annual Newhouse School Mirror Award for his Time magazine cover article, “How Twitter Will Change the Way We Live.”

Johnson’s blog is at www.stevenberlinjohnson.com.

Plenary Session III

Monday, May 21, 9:00 a.m.–10:00 a.m.

Janet Doe Lecturer: Mark E. Funk, AHIP, FMLA

“Our Words, Our Story: A Textual Analysis of Articles Published in the Bulletin of the Medical Library Association/Journal of the Medical Library Association from 1961 to 2010”

Mark E. Funk, AHIP, FMLA, associate director for resources and education, Samuel J. Wood Library, Weill Cornell Medical College, New York, NY, is known for his work in collection development and acquisitions. He has served on many library advisory boards for national and international publishers and is a much-sought-after speaker.

Funk received his master’s degree from the University of Missouri–Columbia. He was a medical librarian at the University of Missouri–Kansas City and the University of Nebraska Medical Center before joining the Weill Cornell Medical Library in 1987. He has served on the MLA Board of Directors and was treasurer (2001–2003) and president (2007/08). His other leadership positions in MLA have included serving on Section Council, as chair of both the Research and Collection Development Sections, and on many MLA committees and task forces. He was named an MLA Fellow in 2010.

As president, he led MLA to expand its use of Web 2.0 and social networking tools, as well as introduced virtual aspects of the annual meeting, allowing “attendance” from anywhere. He served a four-year term on the National Library of Medicine’s Literature Selection Technical Review Committee, which selects journals for indexing in Index Medicus.

He is not related to Carla J. Funk, CAE, Hon. FCLIP, MLA executive director.
PLenary Session IV

Wednesday, May 23, 9:00 a.m.–noon

Plenary Speaker: T. R. Reid

T. R. Reid is a reporter, documentary film correspondent, and frequent guest on National Public Radio. He has authored nine books in English and three in Japanese. As a reporter for the Washington Post, he covered Congress and four presidential campaigns and served as the paper’s bureau chief in Tokyo and in London. His career as an international reporter has spanned three dozen countries on five continents.

Reid has done documentary films for National Geographic, PBS, and the A&E Network. His 2008 Frontline documentary, Sick Around the World, looked at the comprehensive health care systems of five developed world economies. His next film, U.S. Health Care: The Good News, will be broadcast nationally on PBS on February 16, 2012, and focuses on US communities that have found ways to orchestrate their health care system locally without waiting for directions from Washington.

Reid’s investigations into health care resulted in his New York Times best-selling book, The Healing of America: A Global Quest for Better, Cheaper, and Fairer Health Care. In his book, Reid shows how all other industrialized democracies have achieved health care for everybody at a reasonable cost. In addition to studying these different health care models, he also studies countries that have carried out major health care reform.

Reid speaks often about health care and health care reform. He describes positives and negatives of industrialized nations’ health care systems and illustrates how the US system could benefit by learning from successful models in practice in other countries.
Networking Events

Please consult the schedule on page 5 for an overview of the meeting. Dates and times of MLA unit meetings are published on the MLA ’12 website. For updates, go to www.mlanet.org/am/am2012/.

Saturday, May 19

5:30 p.m.–7:30 p.m.

Ticketed Event. One ticket to the reception is included with meeting registration packages A and B. Purchase additional tickets on the registration form.

Sunday, May 20

6:30 a.m.

Yoga Class
Sponsored by Complementary and Alternative Medicine SIG and Nursing and Allied Health Resources Section
Open to all, no registration required.
Suggested donation, $10 at the door.
Start your day in the present moment! This class will lead you through a series of movements to focus awareness on the integration of body and mind. Coming from a hatha yoga tradition (iyengar yoga), Brad Lichtenstein, a faculty member at Bastyr University, emphasizes slow and focused attention to your inner landscape (felt-sense experience). To learn more about Lichtenstein, see www.pranaplay.com/profile.html.

7:00 a.m.–9:00 a.m.

New Members/First-time Attendees Program and Breakfast
Sponsored by Wolters Kluwer | Ovid Invited Event.
Is this your first MLA annual meeting? Would you like to meet MLA leaders? Join the MLA Membership Committee for its annual program and breakfast. The program begins promptly at 7:30 a.m. To receive an invitation, please check the box on the registration form. Invitations will be emailed about 4 weeks before the meeting. You must RSVP to gain admittance.

noon–2 p.m.

Chapter Council Presents Chapter Sharing Roundtables
Sponsored by UpToDate
Optional ticketed event. You must register in advance, no onsite registration. A lunch ticket is required to participate in a discussion and costs $38. Register by topic number. Registrations without a topic number will not be processed.

Lunch and informal discussions on the topic of your choice. Topics are listed below. Lunch will be served including salad, entrée, and dessert. Please indicate dietary restrictions on your registration form.
Facilitators and recorders will be at each table to initiate discussion and document the discussion for posting on the Chapter Council website (www.chaptercouncil.mlanet.org). Facilitators and recorders earn one point toward membership in the Academy of Health Information Professionals for completing these activities. If you would like to share your skills and expertise as a facilitator or a recorder, please email Angela Dixon at Angela_Dixon@urmc.rochester.edu.

MLA offers one free lunch ticket per topic to new members (MLA member for five years or less) who register via the online registration system. Free tickets are paid by chapter donations and MLA and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. To select a free ticket, choose Chapter Council Presents Sharing Roundtable “free lunch” in the optional ticket section of the online registration form. Select your desired topic from the drop-down box. If your topic is grayed-out, this topic has already been taken; however, tickets are still available for purchase.

The free ticket will be added to your registration and show on your confirmation letter with a price of zero. When you arrive at the meeting, you will receive a lunch ticket with your selected topic printed on it. At the lunch, you must sit at the table for your designated topic. Each table facilitator will have a roster to check attendance. If your plans change and you cannot attend, please cancel so the free ticket will be available for another attendee. See registration instructions for cancellation instructions.

In the current era of globalization, a number of libraries in the industrialized world have developed international outreach projects. In North America and Europe, programs have been developed on the national, regional, and local levels. Such projects have a commonality, and sharing ideas will enhance future projects and their sustainability. A panel will briefly highlight several international and national projects: their targeted audiences, strategies, successes, problems, and so on. Speakers and participants will share their ideas and experiences. If you are involved in such projects, or interested in learning more, please attend the session and contribute to the discussion.

So You Want to Be a Library Director?

Are you ready to advance your career? Need tips and techniques for your CV? Interviews? Career path options? If you are planning a move to library management or a library director position, attend this forum! Current librarians in management positions will present their ideas on what works for becoming a successful management candidate.

Scholarly Communications Open Forum

Join the Ad Hoc Committee for Advocating Scholarly Communications for an update on the latest developments in scholarly communications and how these changes are making an impact on library collections and services.

Colleague Connection
Is this your first MLA meeting? Not sure what to attend? Need someone to show you the ropes? Or do you want to help a member maneuver MLA’s annual meeting? Then sign up for the Colleague Connection. This popular networking program pairs a first-time attendee with an experienced member. Once assigned, the pairs work out their own meeting schedules.

To participate, please contact Hannah Norton at, norton@ufl.edu or gunn@mlahq.org, by May 7, 2012. Indicate whether you want to be paired with an experienced member or want to help a new colleague.

International Visitors Desk
Members of the International Cooperation Section (ICS) will welcome international visitors and provide an orientation to MLA ‘12. When you arrive at MLA ‘12, stop at the desk to learn what to see, where to go, whom to meet, and how to connect with MLA members at the meeting and electronically. The desk will be located in the MLA Registration area at the convention center. Hours of operation will be posted at the desk.

Whether you are seeking an entry-level position, an opportunity for advancement, or a change of scenery or you are an employer seeking a highly qualified employee, take advantage of the Job Placement Center.

Individual job seekers and employers must register with the Job Placement Center by completing the forms available at www.mlanet.org/am/am2012/, calling 312.419.9094 x11, or emailing gunn@mlahq.org (please use “Job Placement Center” in subject line).

All forms will be accepted whether or not you are able to attend MLA ‘12. Employers are assessed fees for participating; there is no fee for job seekers.

The deadline for all forms is Tuesday, May 1, 2012. After May 1, 2012, please bring all forms to the placement center.

In addition to the onsite Job Placement Center, employers can post job opportunities on the MLA ‘12 website for $100 for 2 months. Details are available on the MLA ‘12 site.

To place a job ad on MLANET, visit www.mlanet.org/jobs/jobs2.html.

MLA Resume Clinic

The Professional Recruitment and Retention Committee (PRRC), in conjunction with the MLA Job Placement Center, will sponsor the MLA Resume Clinic.

If you have a cover letter, resume, and/or CV that you would like to have reviewed, please sign up. Each participating member will have fifteen to twenty minutes with a reviewer. During that time, the reviewer will critique your cover letter, resume, and/or CV and offer tips and advice for improvement.

The resume clinic is available during the MLA Job Placement Center hours on Sunday, May 20, Monday, May 21, and Tuesday, May 22.

If you would like to send your information in advance of your arrival, please send it to Brenda Faye Green at bfgreen@uthsc.edu, or you can bring it with you.

Drop-ins are welcome; however, signing up is strongly advised. You must attend MLA ‘12 to use this service. If you cannot attend the meeting and wish to have your resume reviewed, you can find a mentor at www.mlanet.org/mentor/.

Official Annual Meeting Blog

The National Program Committee and volunteer bloggers will provide personal coverage on section programming, plenary sessions, exhibitors, social events, and more. Check it out before, during, and after the meeting at www.npc.mlanet.org/mla12.

The Internet Café provides convenient Internet wireless access for meeting attendees. To access your offsite email, bring the name and, if possible, the Internet service provider (ISP) number of your host (mail server) and your MLANET username and password. The café does not have printers.

Poster Sessions

1. Sunday, May 20  3:30 p.m.–4:30 p.m.
2. Monday, May 21  3:30 p.m.–4:30 p.m.
3. Tuesday, May 22  1:00 p.m.–2:00 p.m.

Peer-reviewed posters are a great opportunity to learn from your peers’ experiences implementing new programs and establishing new techniques for today’s contemporary library. View posters on MLANET about three weeks before the meeting.

Technology Showcase

Hall of Exhibits hours

A theater-style setting is open for exhibitor presentations of the latest technologies. Running throughout the day, these sessions are an opportunity for attendees to get a first look at new technology.

Note: If you are an affiliate, non-MLA group, exhibitor, or commercial group, you will be charged for reserving informal meeting space. For more information and to reserve informal meeting space, you must complete an application, available at www.mlanet.org/am/am2012/.

MLA reserves blocks of time for informal meetings and other events. Requests outside these times cannot be accommodated. Requests received before February 13, 2012, will be listed in the Official Program.

By contract, all meeting space is controlled by MLA. Calls to the convention center or hotels for space will be forwarded to the meeting manager for approval.

Register online at www.mlanet.org
Registration and Fees
Registration is handled on a first-come, first-served basis, and no waiting lists are maintained. You must register for continuing education (CE) courses by course number and day on the registration form. Fees are based on first-choice selections. You do not have to register for the meeting to register for MLA ’12 courses. Room assignments will be listed in the Official Program. Some instructors have established a maximum attendance size, so register early by sending in the registration form on page 23 today—or better yet, register online now.

Student fee, pending available space: $50. Nonmember rate includes one-year introductory membership to MLA. Cancellation or course change fee: $50 per course (see page 21 for refund policy and deadlines).

Professional Competencies
Courses are organized in tracks according to the professional competency areas described in Competencies for Lifelong Learning and Professional Success, MLA’s educational policy statement (www.mlanet.org/education/policy/).

100s  Health sciences and health care environment and information policies
200s  Leadership and management theory and techniques
300s  Health sciences information services
400s  Health sciences information resource management
500s  Information systems and technology
600s  Curricular design and instruction
700s  Research, analysis, and interpretation

Special Course Suites

Consumer Health Information Specialist
These courses present the latest resources and ideas in the consumer health information field.

Disaster Information Specialist
These courses provide the latest information and resources in the field of disaster information.

Evidenced-based Practice
These courses emphasize the librarian’s role in the practice of evidence-based health care.

Expert Searcher Training Initiative
These courses emphasize librarians’ roles as expert searchers in health care and biomedical research.

Information Specialist in Context
These courses provide training and demonstrate knowledge regarding the role of the information specialist in context.

Management Track
These courses address topics relevant to library administration for current managers and individuals interested in management.

Hands-on Computer Courses
All hands-on computer courses will be held at an offsite facility in Seattle, WA, and not at the Washington State Convention Center, Sheraton Seattle, or Hyatt at Olive 8. The facility will be named in the Official Program. Transportation from the hotels to the facility will be provided, if necessary. Hands-on courses are marked as part of the course description with the hand icon.

The course on diagnostic error directly affects patient safety—an MLA priority. This course presents the concepts of diagnostic error, placing it in context and preparing attendees to begin planning strategies and projects that team librarians with clinical staff to tackle diagnostic error. An informationist/clinical librarian tools list, exercises identifying targets, and goals are presented.

Instructors: Elaine C. Alligood, Chief, Library Service, Boston VA Health Care System, Boston, MA; Lorri Zipper, Cybrarian, Zipperer Project Management, Albuquerque, NM; Barbara B. Jones, Missouri/Libary Advocacy Coordinator, National Network of Libraries of Medicine, MidContinental Region, J. Otto Lottes Health Sciences Library, University of Missouri–Columbia; and Linda Williams, Program Director, VA National Center for Patient Safety, Ann Arbor, MI

This hands-on course will provide a comprehensive overview of resource description and access (RDA), with an emphasis on print resources. This course will discuss the theoretical models underpinning RDA, provide guidance on navigation of RDA, address the major changes between AACR2 and RDA, and introduce the new RDA-related MARC21 fields.

Instructor: Chamya P. Kincy, Catalog Librarian, Cataloging and Metadata Center, UCLA Library, University of California–Los Angeles

This course will introduce the research process and study design and demonstrate the value of collaboration on research projects. The class will focus on having participants develop answerable research questions, choose a study design best suited to answering their questions, and determine which data collection method would be most appropriate.

Instructors: Heather N. Holmes, AHIP, Clinical Informationist, Medical Library, Summa Health System, Akron, OH, and Elizabeth M. LaRue, AHIP, Assistant Professor, Nursing Informatics, School of Nursing, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA

The class will focus on having participants develop answerable research questions, choose a study design best suited to answering their questions, and demonstrate the value of collaboration on research projects. An informationist/clinical librarian tools list, exercises identifying targets, and goals are presented.

Instructor: Janis Glover, AHIP, Education Services Librarian, Cushing/Whitney Medical Library, Yale University, New Haven, CT, and Karen Odato, Research and Education Librarian, Biomedical Libraries, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH

Have you been asked to participate in the development of a systematic review? This is not for the faint of heart; it is an elaborate process. Through informal discussion and case-based learning, you will acquire the skills needed to support systematic reviews in your institution.

Instructors: Do洛res Judkins, AHIP, Head, Instruction, Research and Outreach, Library, Oregon Health & Science University–Portland, and Patrice O'Donovan, AHIP, Library Director, Portland Campus Library, Linfield College, Portland, OR

Learn how epidemiology is used to study human health and disease outbreaks, what the varied roles and training of practitioners involved in creating health data are, and how librarians may use epidemiological knowledge to search and select relevant literature, as well as plan their own research.

Advanced Biomedical Literature Searching Using State-of-the-Art Next Generation Search Tools

Level: Advanced
Cost: $315 (nonmember, $560)
Attendance maximum: 20

This course introduces the best-of-breed new generation of open-access biomedical literature search tools that enable users to “see” literature broader and deeper, yet spend far less time on searching and “reading.”

Instructors: Yi-Bu Chen, Program Coordinator, and Meng Li, Bioinformatics Specialist, Bioinformatics Service Program, Norris Medical Library, University of Southern California–Los Angeles.

Cloud Computing and Medical Libraries

Level: Beginning
Cost: $240 (nonmember, $445)
Attendance maximum: 15

Where does information live these days? Why, in the cloud, of course! Learn what the cloud is and its potential impact on your medical library.

Instructor: Ellie Bushhousen, AHIP, Assistant University Librarian, Health Science Center Libraries, University of Florida–Gainesville.

Statistical Literacy for Medical Librarians: Swimming in a Whirlpool of Conflicting Medical Claims

Level: Beginning+
Cost: $305 (nonmember, $545)
Attendance maximum: 15

The class will be taught through a combination of lecture, demonstration, discussion, and hands-on exercises. Learners will gain skills in interpreting statistics in the medical literature through an understanding of concepts such as confidence intervals, odds ratios, P-values, and measures of risk. Participants will learn how different research design choices influence the ability of a research study to inform patients and health care providers about the benefits and risks of new medical therapies. Mini lectures will build awareness of the history of causality in the health sciences, the hierarchy of evidence, and the librarian’s role in the systematic review process.

Instructors: Stephen D. Simon, Independent Statistical Consultant, P. Mean Consulting, Leawood, KS, and Susan Sanders, AHIP, Clinical Medical Librarian, Health Sciences Library, University of Missouri–Kansas City.

Electronic Collection Development for Health and Medicine E-Libraries

Level: Intermediate
Cost: $305 (nonmember, $545)
Attendance maximum: 15

In-class lecture, discussion, and group practice with web-based learning activities will focus on the process of e-library collection development planning. Participants will focus on developing a collection plan for one library patron group that they choose for the kinds of libraries they work in. After class, if participants wish additional continuing education, they will be able to draft an e-library collection development plan with free and fee-based, web-accessible resources for a patron community of their choice. This collection plan will be developed in four phases: collection plan abstract or introduction, collection strategy, collection organization plan, and collection maintenance plan. The class will use examples of well-planned and well-designed e-libraries on the web to illustrate each phase. The learning objectives are: Participants will develop selection criteria and plan for collection, evaluation, organization, and maintenance of an e-library collection for a patron group of their choice in the kind of library they choose. Participants will have begun identifying, evaluating, selecting, and collecting appropriate free and fee-based, web-accessible resources for a subject or patron group that they wish to develop and will end the session with a completed collection development plan for the subject or patron group. Participants may continue working on their own individual e-library collection development policies on the teacher’s Moodle after the class meeting.

Instructor: Diane K. Kovacs, Web Teacher, Kovacs Consulting Internet and Web Training, Brunswick, OH.

Note: Web-based portion of course to follow. Participants will receive 20 MLA CE contact hours if they participate in both.

8:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.

Doctor Speak for Medical Librarians: Understanding Terminology, Tests, and Treatments: Part 2: Basic Clinical Skills: An Introduction to Laboratory Tests, Medical Imaging, and Common Drug Types

Level: Beginning+
Cost: $290 (nonmember, $520)
Attendance maximum: 30

This course will provide librarians with practical medical knowledge, focusing on information relevant to case histories, laboratory data, and medical team discussions. Sections will cover common types of drugs, laboratory values (vital signs, basic metabolic profile, complete blood count, urine analysis), and imaging techniques (X-Rays, CTs, MRIs).

Instructors: Jennifer A. Lyon, AHIP, Clinical Research Librarian; Linda Butson, AHIP, Consumer Health and Community Outreach Librarian; Health Science Center Libraries, University of Florida–Gainesville; and Kathleen Moeller, AHIP, FMLA, Director, Borland Health Sciences Library, University of Florida–Jacksonville.

Redesigning Libraries for the 21st Century

Level: Beginning
Cost: $290 (nonmember, $520)
Attendance maximum: 20

This course examines the issues and principles of space planning for new, remodeled, and renovated library space. Requirements and principles for designing information or learning commons, public and staff workstations, green libraries, emerging technologies, the impact of electronic publishing, and social and spatial boundaries and their implications for library design are discussed.

Instructor: Logan Ludwig, AHIP, FMLA, Supreme Council, Knights of Columbus, Haven, CT.

Do You Want to Be a Library Director: Knowledge, Skills, and Career Paths

Level: Intermediate+
Cost: $290 (nonmembers, $520)
Attendance maximum: 15

This course will provide practical advice and actionable ideas for understanding the library director position, the path to becoming a library director, and creating a plan to achieve your professional goals.

The course is designed to inform MLA members who aspire to become academic health sciences library directors. The course will prepare MLA members to consider the leadership challenges in academic health sciences libraries and to assess their own career goals and readiness. The course addresses leadership potential, directors’ activities in the academic health center environment, self-assessment, and service as an interim or acting director.

Instructors: James Shedlock, AHIP, FMLA, Director, Galter Health Sciences Library, Feinberg School of Medicine, Northwestern University, Chicago, IL; Carol G. - CE301 Finding Drug Information, or How to Think and Act Like a Pharmacy Librarian
  - Level: Intermediate
  - Cost: $365 (nonmembers, $635)
  - Attendance maximum: 20

What is drug information (DI)? What makes locating information about medications and drugs different from traditional literature searching? Where do you start? The types of questions and the approaches and resources used to answer them are different for DI from those used for traditional, evidence-based medicine. Librarians who specialize in DI questions often think differently about information to answer these questions. This course will help participants explore the mindset of the pharmacy librarian by working along a continuum from basic concepts to hands-on practice with resources. The overall focus will be on electronic resources, and instructors will provide tips for successful database searching as well as what to do if the information is not available online.

Instructors: KTL Vaughan, AHIP, Pharmacy Librarian, Health Sciences Library, and Clinical Professor, Eshelman School of Pharmacy, University of North Carolina–Chapel Hill; and Terry Ann Jankowski, AHIP, Head, Information and Education Services, Health Sciences Library, University of Washington–Seattle

- CE303 ABCs of DNA: Unraveling the Mystery of Genetics Information for Consumers
  - Level: Beginning
  - Cost: $315 (nomember, $560)
  - Attendance maximum: 20

Consumers and librarians working with the public need to be aware of the issues surrounding genetics and resources to assist patrons in locating and evaluating sometimes complex and confusing information. This class offers an overview of genetic disorders, genetic testing, genetic counseling, and the Human Genome Project. Ethical and legal issues associated with genetic disorders will be covered with regard to privacy, discrimination, and potential legislative impact on medicine and society. A variety of reliable health information resources will be demonstrated, including, but not limited to, Genetics Home Reference, ClinicalTrials.gov, the National Organization for Rare Disorders, and MedlinePlus. This four-hour hands-on class is intended for consumers, public librarians, and health sciences librarians who work with the public.

CE305 Disaster Health Information Sources: The Basics

Level: Beginning

Cost: Free to MLA Members and nonmembers

Attendance maximum: 20

This course provides a comprehensive overview of the essential resources needed to provide health-related information services for supporting disaster mitigation, planning, response, and recovery. This interactive, case-based workshop will cover key resources from the National Library of Medicine (NLM), federal and nonfederal agencies, and international organizations. Tools for locating, organizing, and disseminating disaster health information will also be discussed.

Instructor: Robin Featherstone, Liaison Librarian (Medicine), McGill Life Sciences Library, McGill University, Montreal, QC, Canada

CE501 LINKED: An Intro to the Semantic Web for Medical Librarians and Biomedical Information Professionals

Level: Beginning+

Cost: $240 (nonmember, $445)

The semantic web will shift how we find, share, reuse, and combine information. By using open data standards, computers can explore relationships, revolutionize health care, and perform deep analyses of linked data. We will introduce concepts and tools, provide hands-on exploration, and discuss how medical information professionals can use the semantic web.

Instructors: Layne M. Johnson, Translational Science Information Specialist, Health Sciences Library, and Jonathan Koffel, Clinical Information Librarian, Bio-Medical Library, University of Minnesota–Minneapolis

CE502 App Therapy: Mobile Technology and Health Sciences Libraries

Level: Beginning+

Cost: $240 (nonmember, $445)

Still trying to figure out how playing Angry Birds on your smart phone is going to impact health sciences libraries? Do you still think of your cell phone as a phone? Even if you do not have a smart phone, this course may be just what you need to cut through the hype and balderdash. There is already consensus among technology experts that “more users will likely connect to the Internet via mobile devices than desktop PCs within 5 years” (2009, The Mobile Internet Report). This course will provide participants with an understanding of the current mobile environment and how library services can evolve to meet increasing demand. At the end of this course, you will understand the types and function of mobile technologies, how apps work and what the impact on library resources and services is, be aware the issues related to mobile site creation for libraries, have the ability to cut through the hype of mobile, and have an appreciation for the real impact of mobile devices in health care.

CE602 Forging a Path for Translational Science Support at Your Institution: A Roadmap for Success

Level: Beginning+

Cost: $240 (nonmember, $445)

The concept of clinical and translational science and its multidisciplinary approach offer prime opportunities for many different types of libraries to create visionary, library-based translational science support programs. This class will provide medical librarians with an initial foundation to develop and/or supplement translational science programs for their institutions.

12:30 p.m.–5:00 p.m.

CE800 Managing and Revitalizing Your Career as a Medical Librarian

Level: Beginning+
Cost: $250 (nonmember, $460)
MLA CE contact hours: 4
Attendance maximum: 100

Successful medical librarians in today’s hospital and academic health sciences libraries require career-planning training for a rapidly changing profession. Every rewarding career will bring ups and downs, and everyone faces career pitfalls and setbacks. Participants in this symposium will focus on identifying which stage of their career they are in; learning how to develop a balance of job versus professional duties; understanding the consequences of career derailment, stagnation, and burnout; and working with career coaches to reevaluate their paths and make adjustments to pursue a course that reflects who they are and what they want.

The symposium is organized into four program themes: (1) dealing with career burnout, (2) balancing and transitioning job responsibilities, (3) changing librarians’ roles, and (4) avoiding career pitfalls. The symposium also offers professional career-planning tips and advice for librarians at all stages, including new, mid-career, and senior levels. Participants will learn from an expert in the field about the causes of career stagnation and job burnout and strategies for staying energized and focused. A professional career coach will provide practical approaches for managing workloads and developing plans for transitioning into new jobs and new roles. A panel of senior medical librarians will share individual vignettes, addressing the challenges of achieving work/life balance, transitioning up and down duties, and training up in complex organizations. Attendees will also participate in an interactive exercise to obtain peer advice for successfully changing roles and mapping pathways to new career opportunities.

Keynote Speaker: Heather Krasna, Director, Career Services, Evans School of Public Affairs, University of Washington–Seattle.

Speakers: Elizabeth Atcheson, Blue Bridge Career Coaching, Seattle, WA, and Lorri Zipperer, Cybrarian, Zipperer Project Management, Albuquerque, NM. Panelists: Joyce Backus, Deputy Associate Director, Library Operations, National Library of Medicine, Bethesda, MD; Charles J. Greenberg, AHIP, Coordinator, Curriculum and Research Support, Harvey Cushing/John Hay Whitney Medical Library, Yale University, New Haven, CT; Pat Hawthorne, Director, Library Services, Emory University, Atlanta, GA; and Katherine R. Stemmer Frumento, AHIP, Director, Library Services, Greenwich Hospital, Greenwich, CT.
Section Programs

The diversity of thought-provoking programs coordinated by MLA sections and special interest groups (SIGs) offers exciting opportunities for professional development. For information on MLA sections, visit www.mlanet.org/sections/sections.html. For information on MLA SIGs, visit www.mlanet.org/sections/sigs.html.

Beginning in March, use the online program planner to navigate the meeting in advance. Find dates, times, room assignments, presenters, and abstracts. Find descriptions of the program themes, times, and invited speakers at www.mlanet.org/am/am2012/sect_prog/.

Plan Your Time Online

MLA ’12 will use a new online program planner to provide the information you need to navigate the meeting in advance. The program planner locates all types of sessions and includes room assignments at the Washington State Convention Center. Use the program planner to choose the section programs, meetings, and events that you wish to attend. More information regarding this great new tool will be forthcoming in the spring.

Abstracts will only be available online at www.mlanet.org/am/am2012/. A printed version of the abstracts will not be produced to reduce paper use and the impact on the environment.

It’s not too early to plan ahead for MLA ’13 in Boston, MA!

Paper and poster submissions are due early (by May 1, 2012) for this special international meeting. Final findings and results may be added to the accepted papers and posters up to February 1, 2013, so you don’t have to have completed research to submit a paper or abstract. See www.mlanet.org/am/am2013/ for more information.

The 2013 meeting theme is “One Health: Information in an Interdependent World.” “One Health” encompasses human and animal health, public health, environmental health, climate change, food safety and production, and international health policy.

MLA ’13 will incorporate the 11th International Congress on Medical Librarianship (ICML), the 7th International Conference of Animal Health Information Specialists (ICAHIS), and the 6th International Clinical Librarian Conference.
GENERAL INFORMATION

Cancellations

All cancellations for meeting registration and continuing education (CE) courses must be submitted in writing and faxed to MLA Registration at 312.419.8950. Meeting cancellations received by April 18, 2012, are subject to a $50 fee. You will be assessed a $50 fee for each CE course change or cancellation.

After April 18, 2012, MLA will give refunds only for documented medical emergencies. Refunds will be processed within 6 weeks after the meeting. MLA will honor written requests to transfer meeting registration or CE registration to another person without charge.

Children

All children must have badges. Complimentary badges are available at the MLA Registration Desk. Children under thirteen are not permitted in the exhibit hall. Information about child care will be available at www.mlanet.org/am/am2012/.

Confirmations

If you register online, you will receive a confirmation by email within minutes. If you register by mail or fax, allow 5 days after receipt for an email confirmation. If an email address is invalid or missing, allow 2 weeks for a faxed confirmation. Please bring your confirmation letter with you to the MLA Registration Desk. Confirmations will be sent only to those who register prior to 11:59 p.m., central time, on May 11, 2012.

Special Services

If you have a legal disability or dietary requirements, please include a written description of your needs with the registration form. Describe your needs and include an email address or fax number where you can be contacted for more information. MLA must receive the form by May 1, 2012.

Student Discount

You qualify for student rates if you hold student membership in MLA. Student members also qualify for CE courses and symposia for only $50 each, pending available space. You may join MLA as a student member when you register online or complete the membership form online at www.mlanet.org/joinmla/.

Member Discount

MLA members in good standing are eligible for discounted member rates. Nonmembers may join by paying dues with registration. An application is available at www.mlanet.org/joinmla/. Members of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL), American Medical Information Association (AMIA), American Public Health Association (APHA), Association for Library and Information Science Education (ALISE), Canadian Health Libraries Association/Association des bibliothèques de la santé du Canada (CHLA/ABSC), Council of Science Editors (CSE), Interagency Council on Information Resources in Nursing (ICIRN), and Special Libraries Association (SLA) may register for the meeting at MLA member rates.

Use the Meeting ID below for special fares on United, Continental, or Lufthansa for travel May 12–28, 2012.
• Online: United.com (enter 587JB in promotion code box)
• By phone: call 800.521.4041, Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m.–8:00 p.m., eastern time

For international travel, contact your local reservation office.

American Airlines (AA)
Use the instructions below for 5% discounts on American Airlines, American Eagle, AmericanConnection, oneworld Alliance, and code-share partners for travel May 14–26, 2012.
• Online: for 5% discount after selecting your flight under the Enter Passenger Details tab, go to the AA.com Promotion Code field and enter 4952BS. Go directly to www.aa.com to book your flights.
• By phone: call 800.433.7300 from anywhere in the United States or Canada, 7 days a week, from 6:00 a.m.–midnight, central time, and reference the authorization number AN# 4952BS. Reservations for the hearing and speech impaired are also available at 800.543.1586. There is a $25.00 reservations service charge for tickets issued through AA Travel Centers and a $30.00 ticketing charge for tickets issued at the airport.

Car Rental
Use United Airlines discount code 587JB to earn Mileage Plus miles and be entitled to special discounts on car rentals with Hertz.
Contact Avis at 800.331.1212, and refer to AWD# B136001 to reserve your car at a discounted rate. Outside the United States, please call 800.331.1084.

Ground Transportation to and from the Airport
Sea-Tac International Airport (Sea-Tac) is less than fifteen miles from downtown Seattle. Visit the airport’s official website (www.portseattle.org/sea-tac/) for information on passenger services, flight status, and news for travelers. You will find a number of options for travel between the airport and downtown Seattle.

Central Link light rail (www.soundtransit.org/Schedules/Central-Link-light-rail.xml) will whisk you from the airport to downtown Seattle in about 35 minutes, 7 days a week. At about $2.50 a ride, it is the best deal in town to travel between Seattle and Sea-Tac.

The drive to downtown Seattle from Sea-Tac will take twenty to thirty minutes, depending on traffic. A trip to downtown Seattle from the airport on public transportation takes thirty to forty minutes.

The Seattle Amtrak depot is centrally located at King Street Station, 303 South Jackson Street, Seattle, WA 98104. Visit www.amtrak.com for more information.
Support MLA by booking your reservations under the MLA room block at MLA's official hotels. MLA has negotiated a limited number of rooms at discounted rates. Reservations must be made by April 16, 2012, to receive the discount, subject to availability. Your patronage of these meeting hotels makes it possible for MLA to secure the space necessary for this event at a greatly reduced cost. The hotels not only offer discounted rates and the best networking opportunities, but staying in the group blocks helps the association meet its contractual obligation to the hotels, avoid penalties, and keep meeting registration prices down. We thank you in advance for your support.
