From the President of MLA

Welcome to the Medical Library Association's MLA 2001 at the Walt Disney World® Resort in Orlando! The 2001 National Program Committee has planned a very special annual meeting, and I am so glad you are here to share the excitement, education, and fun. MLA 2001 comes complete with outstanding plenary sessions, papers and posters, excellent continuing-education opportunities, two symposia, wonderful vendor displays, and plenty of networking time to meet and greet each other.

The theme of the meeting “2001: An Information Odyssey” was a natural one in this particular year. It reminds us that our profession is forever changing and leading us into exciting new areas filled with the opportunity to learn and find better ways to use quality information in support of exceptional clinical and scientific decision making. Health sciences librarianship plays a very special role in the advancement of science and clinical practice, and our annual meeting helps advance the practice and extend the research base of our profession. The annual meeting is also fun filled with numerous social events! And, of course, there are the very special places at Walt Disney World for all to enjoy.

Thanks for joining me (and 2,000 other odyssey seekers!) at MLA 2001 as we educate ourselves, recharge our batteries, network with colleagues, and promote a passion for the profession.

—J. Michael Homan, AHIP, president, MLA

Parliamentary rules are established to aid organizations in the orderly, expeditious, and equitable accomplishment of business. Because order and goodwill are essential to working together and achieving common goals, it is essential that association members understand parliamentary procedure. The following overview is a guide to participating in business meetings of the Medical Library Association.

Parliamentary Authority
Article XIII of the 2000 revised Bylaws of the Medical Library Association provides that rules in the 1990 edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the association in all cases where they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Bylaws of the association.

Rules of the Assembly
The following rules govern the conduct of MLA business meetings.

The Floor
When addressing the chair, the person desiring recognition moves to a microphone and gives proper identification, including name and institution, as well as city and state or province; only MLA members are permitted to speak on the floor of the assembly.

Motions and Resolutions
Main motions (those introducing new business) may be brought to the assembly only if written copies have been distributed at least twenty-four hours before the meeting to each Voting Member present or by unanimous consent of Voting Members present. Resolutions are motions presented formally.

Debate
Debate is limited to two minutes for each speaker; no speaker may have the floor twice on the same question until all who wish to speak have spoken. Members speaking a second time are limited to one minute.

Quorum
A quorum of 250 Voting Members is required for the transaction of business. For purposes of determining a quorum, a person eligible to cast two votes is counted as two Voting Members.

Voting
To facilitate the counting of votes, voting paddles are provided to all eligible voters attending the annual meeting. Voting paddles are color-coded to distinguish between Institutional and Regular Members. General consent may be used as a method of voting if there is no objection. Any of the foregoing rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote.

Understanding Motions
Motions are classified according to their purposes and characteristics.

Main Motions
An original main motion brings a new substantive question before the assembly for consideration and action. An incidental main motion relates to other business of the assembly or its past or future action. Incidental main motions include motions to amend something previously adopted and to rescind.

Subsidiary Motions
These motions may alter the main motion and are related to it.

Lay on the table (a temporary delay)
Previous question (to stop debate)
Limit or extend debate
Postpone to a certain time
Commit or refer to a committee
Amend
Postpone indefinitely (to kill)

Privileged Motions
These motions have no direct connection to the main motion. They are the highest ranking motions and are designed to take care of emergencies that arise in the assembly.

Fix the time at which to adjourn—set an adjourned meeting
Adjourn
Recess
Question of privilege
Call for the orders of the day

Incidental Motions
These motions arise only incidentally out of business before the assembly. Most of these motions are not debatable and are handled as soon as they arise. Some incidental motions are:

Appeal from the decision of the chair
Consider seriatim (consideration by paragraph)
Division of the question
Parliamentary inquiry
Point of information
Point of order
Suspend the rules
Withdraw a motion

Motions that Bring a Question before the Assembly Again

Take from the table
Reconsider
Rescind or amend something previously adopted

Precedence of Motions
Precedence sets the priority of motions and the order in which they must be proposed and considered. Subsidiary and privileged motions are ranked in this descending order:

Fix the time at which to adjourn (highest ranking)
Adjourn
Recess
Question of privilege
Call for the orders of the day

Lay on the table
Previous question
Limit or extend debate
Postpone to a certain time
Commit or refer
Amend
Postpone indefinitely
Main motion

Only those motions that are higher in rank than the pending motion are in order and may be made. For example, when the main motion and the motion to commit are pending, only motions of higher rank than "commit" may be made.

OCLC—the power of library cooperation at work for you

Visit booth 238 and discover why over 38,000 libraries worldwide depend on OCLC services

Map your piece of the world with the Cooperative Online Resource Catalog (CORC). OCLC CORC helps libraries around the globe cooperatively select, describe, maintain and provide guided access to the universe of local and web-based electronic resources.

Provide users with streamlined access to your library's holdings, the collections of libraries worldwide and full-text articles with the OCLC FirstSearch service. OCLC FirstSearch implements MESH in MEDLINE, linking full-text articles from the OCLC FirstSearch Electronic Collections Online service to MEDLINE and many other databases throughout the service. Holdings of libraries worldwide in the WorldCat database are linked to MEDLINE and other databases to help your users find the resources they need. A powerful administrative module allows you to customize OCLC FirstSearch and link to your library's web OPAC for local holdings information.

Streamline your ILL operation with the OCLC ILLiad Resource Sharing Management Software (supports EFTS). OCLC ILLiad automates routine borrowing and lending functions—increasing productivity and improving ILL turnaround time. With its sophisticated tracking capabilities, it makes managing ILL easier than ever.

Get materials to users faster than ever before with OCLC Cataloging Express service (CatExpress). OCLC CatExpress provides an easy-to-use web-based copy cataloging solution for libraries with smaller collections, supporting NLM, LC and Dewey call numbers.
