

Latest on the Main Street Lending Program – June 11, 2020

Today, the Fed announced two more webinars for lenders and borrowers interested in the Main Street Program. For borrowers, this session is an opportunity to learn about changes to the program announced on June 8, 2020, and to ask questions about the program to senior officials from the Federal Reserve. Interested participants are encouraged to review the updated program term sheets and frequently asked questions that were released on June 8, 2020.

According to the announcement, the Main Street program will be open for lender registration soon and will be actively buying loans shortly afterwards.
