

instituto de iberoamérica
universidad de salamanca

Institute of Latin American Studies

Stockholm
University

Participating Universities

Partners

Sorbonne Nouvelle - Paris 3 (Coordinator)

Institut des Hautes Études de l'Amérique latine - IHEAL

Universidad de Salamanca

Instituto de Iberoamérica

Stockholm University

Institute of Latin American Studies

Associate Partners

Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México • Universidade Federal de Rio de Janeiro & Universidade de São Paulo (Brazil) • FLACSO (Ecuador) • Universidad de la República (Uruguay) • Universidad Austral (Chile) • Université Catholique de Louvain la Neuve (Belgium) •

Non-Academic Associates

Government of Mexico City (ALLAS project) • The Rivers Regional Government (Chile) • Ibero-American General Secretariat (SEGIB) • Organisation of Ibero-American States (OEI) • EU-LAC Foundation • Uruguayan-Nordic Countries Chamber of Commerce • Atrevia Consulting • Stiffelsen Future Earth Sverige • Prospectiva Consulting • ProDESC • Leadership Institute Simone de Beauvoir • Haz Paz • Civic Collaboration Center • Mexican Commission for the Defense and Promotion of Human Rights

More information

www.iheal.univ-paris3.fr/fr/international/laglobe

www.masterlaglobe.eu

Contact

laglobe@sorbonne-nouvelle.fr

Erasmus+

Erasmus Mundus Programme

LAGLOBE

Master
Latin America & Europe
in a Global World

Latin America & Europe in a Global World

UNIVERSIDAD
DE SALAMANCA

LAGLOBE Latin America & Europe in a Global World is a multidisciplinary Erasmus Mundus Master's Programme that lasts two years (four semesters) with a total of 120 credits. Courses are taught in three different universities in Europe, with lectures, seminars and conferences in three different languages: English, French and Spanish. For the last semester, students will opt for either a field research or an internship with one of our partners in Latin America.

The main goal of LAGLOBE is to study, from the perspective of the social sciences and humanities, the challenges and relationships between Europe and Latin America as part of a global world, taking into account the theoretical frameworks and values of the European Union and its member countries.

Objectives

To train a new generation of specialists eager to acquire knowledge on cooperation challenges. LAGLOBE graduates will possess an innovative and complementary profile consisting of a deep understanding of EU and Latin American societies, cultures and economies.

Requirements

- Bachelor degree or equivalent in social sciences, human sciences or legal sciences
- Academic Transcripts
- One letter of recommendation in English
- Proficiency in English and Spanish (C1 level or first language) and French (B2 level or first language)
- A research project (1800 words) in English
- Cover letter (600 words) in English
- A Europass CV in English

Diploma

Students will receive a joint degree issued by the three European universities.

Employability

PhD, academic research, consultancy, NGOs and international organisations, government officials, among others.

Programme

The LAGLOBE Master's Programme has a duration of two years, divided into four semesters, as described in the table below.

		University	Main fields
Mobility Path	S1	Universidad de Salamanca	Introduction to Latin American Studies
	S2	Stockholm University	Transversal issues: environment, gender, democracy
	S3	Université Sorbonne Nouvelle - Paris 3	Methodological approaches and professional courses
	S4	Associate University	Field research & thesis
Non-academic partners		OR Internship & thesis	