SIEMON™

The Siemon Company, family owned and USA based since 1903, is providing the best-in-class copper and fiber cabling and connectivity solutions for K-12 applications. Protecting your current and future installs with our industry leading PowerGUARD technology to help enhance and protect your PoE applications. From patch cords and cable management to 10G plugs and a full keystone offering, Siemon supports it all.

Z-Plug Supports Remote Powered Devices

Siemon's Z-Plug is the most advanced Category 6a plug on the market for direct connections to your WiFi APs and IP cameras and supports any remote powered device up to 10G.
go.siemon.com/K12Zplug

LockIT Protects Your Physical Connections

Siemon's LockIT Patch Cords allow tamper proof conections for all of your patching installations and are compatible with any standards compliant RJ45 outlet.
go.siemon.com/K12LockIT

Cost Effective Racks and Cable Management

Siemon's Value Rack and Value Vertical Cable Management provides a cost effective solution for your equipment and telecommunication rooms. This complete and robust system is easy to assemble and features the tooless value vertical manager.
go.siemon.com/K12Racks

Full Line of Keystone Outlets and Panels

Siemon supports a wide range Keystone outlets, panels and wallplates utlizing our industry leading PowerGUARD technology. The patented PowerGUARD™ system is an industry leading technology protecting your remote power needs.
go.siemon.com/K12Keystone

PowerGUARD™

Deploying a cabling infrastructure for today's converged networks that deliver remote power to a wide range of devices requires cables and connectivity designed to provide superior remote powering support – that's Siemon's PowerGUARD™ technology.

FLR_SiemonSupportsEducation_RevB 0821