Sitting on a rare, oversized gentle lot in a convenient in-town location, this spacious getaway includes many custom features for the best in mountain living. The floor plan keeps the kitchen, living, and dining areas open, and special touches make this home truly unique, such as custom plasterwork, wooden beams, and high-quality built-ins. Large uncovered and covered decks provide plenty of gathering spots to enjoy nature during sunshine or rain.

Use the bonus room above the attached two-car garage as an in-law suite or for additional rental income. Other guest quarters can be found on the lower level, which includes an office, bedroom, bath, kitchen, and separate entry. An abundance of storage is perfect for year-round or comfortable second-home living. The gently rolling, wooded backyard is already fenced for kids and pets to explore. Mountain views could be created with some tree trimming if desired.
