

Real Estate Agent, LICENSED

ERA Cape Real Estate, one of the top 10 real estate companies Cape-wide for productivity, is seeking licensed real estate agents. ERA is independently owned, backed with 50 years of experience, and represents thousands of satisfied clients. This is the core of ERA's continued success.

ERA offers its agents a wide range of goods and services, all at NO COST to the agent. We have paid staff to guide agents through all aspects of real estate. A sales manager is available throughout the entire listing and selling process, an admin to help with the daily tasks and a marketing director to promote not only ERA, but individual agents. ERA's focus is to set agents up for success.

Additionally, our long-term agent relationships result in a stronger and more reputable real estate organization, attracting more clients and talent, creating a virtuous cycle of success.

Be part of our success.

- Higher pay with a sliding commission scales up to 80% splits!
- Agents get a leg up in their book of business with Open Houses, E-leads, Uptime, etc.
- ERA is transparent, there is no fine print in our contracts that will inhibit agents or their book of business.
- ERA pays for listing and selling expenses, no bill at the end of the month.
- If you cannot show your listing, ERA staff will be there to show it for you, to ensure properties are always available for viewing.
- ERA promises leads, and delivers.
- ERA pays for products that automate and ease the lead generation and retention process for agents.
- FREE Continuing Ed classes, a variety of workshops in all aspects of listing and selling. (We own our own school)

Most importantly, we put our money where our mouth is when it comes to creating opportunities and business for our agents - from free Electronic Leads and digital advertising to free print and direct mail marketing.

If you are looking to start a career in Real Estate, our training is unique. An experienced, seasoned, licensed staff member will guide agents through listings, offers, contracts, inspections, nitrogen sensitive requirements, town expectations, etc. No off-Cape training centers, no videos to watch!

Are you looking to make a change from your current brokerage? ERA Cape Real Estate can offer you a seamless, effortless transition. We help you insure your current book of business with our technology and staff. Adwerx will assist you in keeping "front of mind" with all potential and past clients, MoxiWorks will manage your book of business, our customized agent platform will give you remote access to your listings and sales, company forms, advertising stats, etc. ERA's social media staff will blanket the internet for you, and our marketing department will create a specific program to maximize your listings.
