FEATURES

- Expertly renovated townhome by Home Source Builders in resilient and friendly Bee Tree Village — a collection of caring neighbors dedicated in action to rebuild and restore the community — nestled between Asheville and Black Mountain for easy access to a plethora of area amenities
- Determined Swannanoa continues to focus on rebuilding neighborhoods devastated by the flood, including Beacon Village — a proposed multi-use project featuring local shopping and dining destinations that attract visitors from the region and beyond
- Original Bee Tree Village builder/designer has won multiple Parade of Homes awards for craftsmanship and design; homes feature bright and open spaces, each with slightly different layouts
- Located close to Warren Wilson College, boasting bucolic farmlands, seasonal farm stands, available adult classes, uplifting concerts, and student-maintained hiking trails

Lavish Landscaping Frames the Home

- High-quality renovations and unique/custom features abound, boasting attention to detail and including an induction cooktop; under-counter, drawer-style microwave; Silgranit sink and no-touch faucet; custom cabinets; built-in pantry and closet organization; built-in trash/recycling bins; hanging/rolling barn-style glass doors in the primary bathroom; and blackout shades in both bedrooms
- Enjoy healthy outdoor living from the expansive patio and backyard garden, the covered patio off of the dining area, and on great streets for walking and mingling with neighbors
- Convenient, one-level living in Western North Carolina

- Inviting entry with coat closet
- Spacious living room with a soaring vaulted ceiling, exposed beams, two ceiling fans, modern metal-surround gas-log fireplace with tiered mantel, and access to the sunny back patio that's perfect for gathering; fully fenced backyard for furry friends
