This luxurious, and architecturally distinctive home high on Town Mountain offers a warm Mountain Modern aesthetic with a seamless blend of wood, stone, and slate throughout—plus absolutely breathtaking views of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Inside its rondette design, rich with natural materials, this special residence is a juxtaposition of rustic and modern—with killer views for days. A prime example of a home that lives much larger than its two-bedroom septic permit, there is a sleek chef's kitchen with Sub-Zero and Wolf appliances, two bedrooms (or one bedroom with a separate office), plus a lower-level in-law suite that has a separate entrance, a kitchenette, and a private deck with expansive views. Live here full time, use it as a luxurious vacation rental, or live upstairs and rent the lower-level suite.

The outdoor living is fantastic as well, with a rare, moderately sloping side yard perfect for pets and play. From the expansive wraparound porch, you will feel your blood pressure lower as the cool mountain air envelops you while you enjoy views of the Blue Ridge Parkway, Mount Pisgah, and the beautiful Chunn's Cove Valley. And lastly, there is ample parking, too, with a gigantic garage and a tolerably sloped driveway (not scary!). If you are seeking quality and unique character, this home is for you!
