

Commissions and Licensing Information

A commission with Katherine Carver is an investment in high quality images that you will enjoy for a lifetime. Katherine utilizes a fun, highly individualized, and customized approach to meet your unique needs.

Katherine is also available for commercial and licensing projects.

You are Katherine's first priority from your first e-mail to the day you receive your custom archival fine art prints. You will never need to wonder where you are in the process or what happens next - through prompt and timely communication you will feel completely taken care of through every step of your client experience.

DOG PORTRAITS

Katherine will document and produce a range of photographs on location including full body, headshots, and more abstract shots utilizing unique markings and features of each individual dog. Please contact Katherine for further details.

CUSTOM

Katherine offers customized photography services and photography sessions to meet your individual needs. Please contact Katherine to further discuss your individual needs in greater detail.

COMMERCIAL

Katherine is available for commercial assignments. Please contact Katherine to discuss your project needs.

LICENSING

Please contact Katherine for all licensing inquiries.