CELEBRATING AN AMERICAN LEGEND:

Gene Kelly
A Two-Evening Special Tribute with Patricia Ward Kelly

PART ONE

An Intimate Portrait of Gene Kelly
FRIDAY, JULY 20 • 7:00PM
Film historian Patricia Ward Kelly takes audiences behind the scenes and shares an intimate story of her late husband Gene Kelly, the man who helped create some of the most memorable scenes in film history. This unique live performance—praised as “a real treat” by Variety—combines rare and familiar film clips, never released audio recordings and personal insights culled from hours of interviews with her husband. Mrs. Kelly reveals a very personal side of this American legend and his perspective on the work for which he wished to be remembered.

PART TWO

Changing the Look of Dance on Film
SATURDAY, JULY 21 • 6:30PM
In this second, special evening performance, Patricia Ward Kelly explores Gene’s contribution in creating a particularly American form of dance. Blending carefully chosen film clips, personal letters and telegrams and rarely heard stories, Mrs. Kelly presents an in-depth look at Gene’s extraordinary innovations in the use of cinematography, choreography and animation.
