Biography
Willard Mullin, September 14, 1902 – December 20, 1978, was an American sports cartoonist. He is most famous for his creation of the "Brooklyn Bum", the personification of the Brooklyn Dodgers baseball team. For decades he cartooned daily for Scripps-Howard's New York World-Telegram and Sun and was often published in Scripps-Howard's twenty papers, as well as in the Sporting News.
