

Facebook Live Marketing

Dear Entrepreneurs!

According to nearly 70 digital marketers, Live video is poised to explode on social platforms in 2017!

Video will be the fastest-growing content category on mobile, desktop and everywhere else through at least 2020, eMarketer.com predicts, and as a result digital-video ad spending will rise from $9.90 billion in 2016 to $28.08 billion in 2020.

Video posts are dominating social media, with Facebook emerging as YouTube's largest contender for video uploads. If you haven't started marketing with video on Facebook, now's the time to begin.

And use this medium to catapult your web business to the next level

Video production is going to be a major theme for social media in 2017, and live video, in particular, is going to grow greatly.

Live video will be hot in 2017 because it lets brands engage with audiences in a way that's immediate, unscripted, unedited and more authentic than "canned" content.

And the most important reason to test out live video is the increased reach. Live videos get a boost in Facebook's algorithm, giving you a push into more and more people's feeds.

Once you decide to use Facebook Live to grow your brand, you will soon see that the money you have spent on the campaign is in fact worthwhile in terms of the success of your business.

To help marketers stay up-to-date and keep ahead of evolving technologies and tools, we have put together all the resources for growing your brand effectively on Facebook Live.

Many businesses wonder why they should even care about live streaming. Worried that videos must be filmed in a studio with professional lighting and cameras, many business owners shy away from the very thought of streaming live. If you're like that, it's time to take a breath and jump in!

With live streaming, you have the chance to really connect with your audience, answer their questions in real-time and share product and service tips and tricks — so that you become the trusted source.

Live video receives three times the amount of engagement than prerecorded video, according to Forrester Research.

Hence, Resistance to live video is futile.

Companies who don't embrace live video will be left behind. The upshot is that there are many effective ways to use live video for marketing or outreach.

Not convinced yet? Here are 8 Facebook Live statistics that will surely make you start your first broadcast, now.
