

Editor's Circle

Since 2011, FIRST THINGS has recognized members of the Editor's Circle for their investment in FIRST THINGS and has provided them with opportunities to participate more intimately in the FIRST THINGS community of scholars, writers, and readers. Editor's Circle members are the Institute's core supporters and make annual gifts of $1,000 or more. The following list also includes those Editor's Circle members who contributed pledge payments to the FIRST THINGS 25 Fund.
