RICHARD JOHN NEUHAUS SOCIETY

When he died in 2009, Richard John Neuhaus, founder of the Institute on Religion and Public Life and FIRST THINGS magazine, left not only a great intellectual legacy, but also a generous bequest.

The Richard John Neuhaus Society honors his memory and ensures a strong future for FIRST THINGS. It is open to any who remember the Institute on Religion and Public Life in their wills or estate plans. We are very grateful to acknowledge the following founding members of the Richard John Neuhaus Society.

- B. G. Carter
- Charles R. Disque
- Robert R. Ford
- Alonzo L. McDonald
- Francis and Jennifer Ruffing of Loudon, NH
- Joseph A. Swanson

If you are interested in learning more about the Richard John Neuhaus Society or other ways to make tax-advantaged planned gifts, contact us at 212-627-1985 or at ft@firstthings.com.
