

GOD TIME

YOU CAN TALK
WITH OTHERS
ABOUT WHAT YOU BELIEVE

Read Hebrews 10:25.

Imagine you are at camp today. What if you had been the ONLY one who showed up? That would be so weird, wouldn't it? What if you'd been the only one playing the super fun games or making the cool craft or singing in worship or discussing today's lesson with your leader?

Everyone knows that friends make things more FUN! But did you know that friends can also help you grow in your faith? It's true. When it comes to following God, He knew that we would need each other. As you participate in small group each week, your faith will grow. You'll learn from the experience of others, pray for each other and worship together. You can TALK to others about what you believe.

Can you name some friends who follow God? Do they encourage you and pray for you? As you pray today, thank God for those friends. If you can't think of anyone, ask God to help you talk to your parents about coming back to church so you can find a small group this week!
