

Week 2:

No Revival Without Repentance

Questions

1. This is a key week to split men and women into separate groups for discussion. Do so now if you haven't already.
2. Because we will be sharing sensitive matters this week, take a moment to decide as a group of men or women if you are committed to keeping what is shared here confidential. Here's an example of what you could agree to:
What is shared in this group stays in this group. We commit to guarding each other's vulnerabilities as a sacred trust, praying for one another instead of discussing matters elsewhere.
3. Share any pages from the Devotional or ideas from the sermon that have spoken to you or encouraged you.
4. Read Matthew 22:37-38. What is "the first and greatest command," according to Jesus in this passage? Has this Revival study been increasing or decreasing your love for God? Describe.
5. Read Psalm 51:1-4 aloud. Read 1 John 1:9. Has God revealed to you any obvious sin that has grown between you and the Father? Have you been trusting in money, busyness, career or other people, instead of trusting in Him? Has your family become an idol that you worship above Him? Take a moment to share honestly.
6. Each time we sin or struggle to put God first, we are actually in a moment of great opportunity. We have the opportunity to confess and restore the relationship. Through Jesus' work on the cross, we get to do this over and over. Have you ever considered "repentance" through this lens of relationship? Describe what feelings and thoughts you used to have about the word "repentance."
7. Read John 21:15-17. If Jesus asked you three times, "Do you really love me more than you love the other people in your life?" What would your answer be today?
8. Read Nehemiah 1:4-7. What if God is waiting for you to repent, in order for Him to revive the people you love the most? If that is the case, are you willing to repent and put God back into first place in your heart and life—for His glory and for the good of those people you love?
9. Each person should leave the group with a buddy. Groups of 3 to 5 who will pray together daily by phone or text, and will check in with each other. Identify your group of 3 to 5 now.
10. Identify the most frequent sin struggles in your life.

11. Read Matthew 6:13. Have you ever prayed daily, “Lord, lead me away from temptation, and deliver me from Satan and demonic influence?” Take a moment to pray this aloud right now, with each person praying it.
12. Read Hosea 10:12b. In order to experience full revival, your heart must be “broken up” just like the hardened soil must be broken up. Share what God is doing in your heart.
13. Read Psalm 30:5. This joy and rejoicing follow the pain of repentance. It takes faith to walk through the pain of repenting, believing that joy waits on the other side. Share if you are in the painful or joyful stage of repentance. Then take a moment to pray for one another. Ask God to give endurance and faith to each specific person in your group. (see also Psalm 51:12)

Takeaways

  - Revival Practices:
    - 1: A posture of urgency and dependence

- Psalm 51:1-4, 7-9 (NIV)

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight; so you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.
- Bring your shame and regret to God in repentance. He alone can wash you, restore you, and lift you up.
