Seller's Property Disclosure - Condominium

Notice to Licensee and Seller: Only the Seller should fill out this form.

Notice to Seller: Florida law[1] requires a seller of a home to disclose to the buyer all known facts that materially affect the value of the property being sold and that are not readily observable or known by the buyer. This disclosure form is designed to help you comply with the law. However, this disclosure form may not address every significant issue that is unique to the Property. You should think about what you would want to know if you were buying the Property today; and if you need more space for additional information, comments, or explanations, check the Paragraph 10 checkbox and attach an addendum.

Notice to Buyer: The following representations are made by Seller and not by any real estate licensee. This disclosure is not a guaranty or warranty of any kind. It is not a substitute for any inspections, warranties, or professional advice you may wish to obtain. It is not a substitute for your own personal judgment and common sense. The following information is based only upon Seller's actual knowledge of the Property's condition. Sellers can disclose only what they actually know. Seller may not know about all material or significant items. You should have an independent, professional home inspection to verify the condition of the Property and determine the cost of repairs, if any. This disclosure is not a contract and is not intended to be a part of any contract for sale and purchase.

Florida law[2] entitles a prospective buyer, who has entered into a contract for the purchase of a condominium unit with a seller who is not a developer, at Seller's expense, to a current copy of the declaration of condominium, articles of incorporation of the association, bylaws and rules of the association, the most recent annual financial statement and annual budget and the "Frequently Asked Questions and Answers" document, if buyer requests these in writing. These documents, and meeting agendas and minutes, contain important matters to be considered before acquiring a condominium unit, such as recurring dues or fees; special assessments; capital contributions, penalties; and alteration, leasing, parking, pet, resale, vehicle and other types of restrictions.

Except for information provided in paragraph 6, 7, 8 and 9, the following information is only about the individual Unit specified below and not about any limited common element, any common element or the condominium association ("Association").

IMPORTANT ALERT AND ANTI-FRAUD DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM CYBER FRAUD

This alert is to inform and caution you about a nationwide threat involving a real estate transaction cyber crime intended to divert funds due from you for your closing to the bank account of illegal scammers. These emails are convincing and sophisticated.

Here is how it works: Scammers hack into the email of someone involved in the transaction (real estate agent, lender, title agent, buyer or seller) and use that access to discover details of the pending transaction, including the closing date.

As the closing date approaches, the scammers use a fraudulent email account (or other form of electronic communication) which appears legitimate and is frequently from the Realtor®, title agent or settlement agent and directs the buyer to wire closing funds to a shell account. The funds are misdirected to the scammers and are gone! These emails look legitimate and appear to be from the proper party.

Please be advised that our sales professionals (Realtors®) at RE/MAX of Stuart will not email you a request to wire money for your closing (or for any other reason whatsoever). That request will be directed to you by your title and settlement provider in conjunction with letting you know your final cash to close amounts. If you receive such a request from what may appear to be your Realtor®, do not comply! Also, if you receive wire instructions via email, ALWAYS phone verify with the appropriate recipient that the information is legitimate, and that the ABA, routing numbers, account numbers and/or SWIFT codes are correct!

It is always a best practice if you have any concerns, to stop and call via telephone to verify before you send out any wired funds. Also do not send confidential information such as your SSN, credit card information, DOB, bank accounts, etc. via email. This should be done in person or via telephone. By signing below, you acknowledge your understanding of the cyber fraud activities described herein.
