Topotecan is an anticancer chemotherapeutic compound that inhibits topoisomerase I and is clinically used to treat various cancers. Topotecan induces apoptosis in retinocytoma cells and ovarian cancer cells.

References

