Ginsenoside F₁ is a triterpene saponin originally found in species of Panax that exhibits cytoprotective and anti-apoptotic activities, inhibiting UV-induced cell death and apoptosis by downregulating expression of Bcl-2 and preventing cleavage of PARP. This compound also decreases gap junction communication in vitro.

References

Caution: This product is intended for laboratory and research use only. It is not for human or drug use.