Lupinine is a plant alkaloid found in species of Loranthus, Calia, and Lupinus. Lupinine exhibits immunostimulatory activity, potentially through the activation of CD69. Lupinine inhibits cholinesterases and may also inhibit heparin.

References

Caution: This product is intended for laboratory and research use only. It is not for human or drug use.