K252a is an aglycone analog of staurosporine that acts as a protein kinase inhibitor, inhibiting PKC. K252a also inhibits TrkA/B receptors, suppressing activity of neurotrophins such as nerve growth factor (NGF).

References

Caution: This product is intended for laboratory and research use only. It is not for human or drug use.