Abacavir is a guanosine nucleoside analog reverse transcriptase inhibitor (NRTI) that is clinically used to treat HIV infection. Abacavir exhibits antiviral activity. This compound also inhibits guanylyl cyclase and telomerase activity.

References

Caution: This product is intended for laboratory and research use only. It is not for human or drug use.