28
29 "THE LAWS GOVERNING INCOMPETENCY AND GUARDIANSHIP ARE
30 COMPLEX. THIS IS A SUMMARY OF RIGHTS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES
31 ONLY. IT IS NOT INTENDED TO BE A COMPLETE DISCUSSION OF ALL RIGHTS.
32 THE RIGHTS LISTED MAY NOT APPLY IN ALL CASES AND SHOULD NOT BE 33 CITED AS LAW IN A COURT PROCEEDING. YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH AN 34 ATTORNEY OF YOUR CHOOSING IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR 35 RIGHTS.

36
37 a. Rights of Respondents Before Adjudication of Incompetence:

38
39 1. Right to Notice – You have a right to receive a copy of the petition, the initial notice
40 of hearing, and this notice of rights before the hearing. You also have the right at any time to 41 request a copy of this notice of rights from your court-appointed guardian ad litem or the court.

42 2. Right to an Attorney – You have the right to hire an attorney of your choice to 43 represent you in the proceeding. If you do not hire your own attorney, you will be represented by 44 an attorney called a guardian ad litem. If you do hire an attorney, the court may require the 45 guardian ad litem to continue to be involved in your case. The guardian ad litem will present your 46 express wishes to the court and consider the possibility of a limited guardianship, making 47 recommendations to the court regarding the rights that you should keep if the guardianship is 48 limited. The guardian ad litem may also make recommendations to the court that the guardian ad
49 litem feels are in your best interest, even if those recommendations differ from your express 50 wishes.

1        3.        Right to Gather Evidence – You have a right to require witnesses to appear and to 2 gather documents concerning your ability to make decisions. You have a right to request an 3 evaluation (called a multidisciplinary evaluation) to assist the court in determining the extent of 4 your ability to make decisions and to assist in making an appropriate guardianship plan. You or 5 your attorney must request a multidisciplinary evaluation in writing no later than 10 days after 6 you are served with the petition.

7        4.        Right to a Hearing – A hearing must be held before you can be adjudicated to be 8 incompetent. The hearing will be held between 10 and 30 days after you receive a copy of the 9 petition, notice of hearing, and this notice of rights unless the court delays the hearing for a good
10 reason. You have the right to ask the court to change the date of the hearing for a good reason,
11 and the court will decide whether or not to change the hearing date. You have a right to attend
12 the hearing if you choose to do so. You can give up your right to attend the hearing. You have a 13 right to have your express wishes communicated to the court by the court-appointed guardian ad
14 litem at all relevant stages of the proceedings.

15        5.        Right to a Jury – You have the right to request that a jury hear your case. You lose 16 that right to a jury if you wait too long to ask.

17        6.        Right to a Closed Hearing – The hearing is open to the public unless you or your 18 attorney ask for it to be private. You or your attorney have the right to ask the court to close the 19 hearing and exclude anyone who is not directly involved or testifying at the hearing.

20        7.        Right to Present Evidence and Testimony – You have a right to present evidence
21 at the hearing. You have a right to testify at the hearing.

22        8.        Right to Call Witnesses and Right to Question Witnesses – You have the right to 23 call and question witnesses at the hearing, including family members and medical providers. You 24 have the right to question witnesses anyone else calls at the hearing.

25        9.        Right to Express Wishes Regarding Your Rights – If you are adjudicated to be 26 incompetent, you will lose the right to direct your healthcare, employment, interpersonal
27 relationships, and religious, social, and community activities unless the court specifically agrees
28 to allow you to keep those rights. You have the right to tell the court what rights you would like 29 to keep. The court will consider your wishes, but the court is not required to follow your wishes.

30        10.       Right to Express Wishes as to Who Serves as Your Guardian – If the court decides 31 that you need a guardian, you have the right to tell the court who you want to be your guardian.
32 The court will consider your wishes, but the court is not required to follow your wishes.

33        11.       Right to Appeal – If you have a good reason to believe that your case was wrongly 34 decided, (i) you have the right to appeal the decision adjudicating you to be incompetent by filing
35 a written notice of appeal with the clerk within 10 days of the clerk entering the order and (ii)
36 you have the right to appeal the clerk's decision about who is appointed as your guardian by filing
37 a written notice of appeal with the clerk within 10 days of the order being served on you. You 38 lose your rights to appeal any decision made by the clerk if you do not file a written notice of 39 appeal in time.

40
41        b.        Rights of Wards After Adjudication of Incompetence:

42
43        1.        Right to a Qualified, Responsible Guardian – You have the right to a qualified,
44 responsible guardian.

45        2.        Right to Request Transfer to Another County – If you have a good reason to 46 believe that your guardianship should be administered in a different county, you have the right
47 to request that your guardianship be transferred to another county.

48        3.        Right to Request Restoration of Competency – If there has been a change in your 49 circumstances and you believe that you can show to the court that you have regained your 50 competency, you have the right to request that the court restore your competency and end your 51 guardianship.

1        4.        Right to Request a Review or Modification of Your Guardianship – If there has 2 been a change in your circumstances and you believe that your guardianship should be modified
 3 or reviewed, you have the right to file a motion to request that the court review or modify your
 4 guardianship.

5        5.        Right to Vote – You have a right to register to vote and vote in elections if you are 6 otherwise qualified.

7        6.        Right to Request a Hearing in a Petition for Procedure to Permit Sterilization –
 8 If your guardian asks the court for an order to sterilize you, you have the right to know about it,
 9 to participate in the hearing, to have an attorney at the hearing, and to appeal the court's decision
 10 by filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk within 10 days of the clerk entering the order.

11        7.        Ability to Drive – You may lose your ability to drive a car or other vehicle. The clerk
 12 must notify the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) that you have been adjudicated 13 incompetent, and the clerk will make a recommendation on whether you should keep your 14 driver's license. The DMV will contact you and you may get a letter from the DMV revoking
 15 your license. You have the right to make a written request to the DMV to review a decision to 16 revoke your license.

17        8.        Additional Rights – Some rights depend on whether you have the capacity to 18 exercise the right. Different rights have different tests for capacity. Examples of rights where 19 you need to demonstrate you have the required capacity are the right to marry, make a last will
 20 and testament, and testify as a witness. You should consult with an attorney of your choosing
 21 to discuss whether you have the capacity to exercise these rights.
 22

23        (b)        The Administrative Office of the Courts shall develop a form notice as set forth in 24 subsection (a) of this section and shall make a Spanish translation of the form available."

26        "§ 35A-1201. Purpose.

27        (a)        The General Assembly of North Carolina recognizes that:

- 28        (1)        Some minors and incompetent persons, regardless of where they are living,
 29                require the assistance of a guardian in order to help them exercise their rights,
 30                including the management of their property and personal affairs.
- 31        (2)        Incompetent persons who are not able to act effectively on their own behalf 32                have a right to a qualified, responsible guardian.
- 33        (3)        The essential purpose of guardianship for an incompetent person is to replace 34                the individual's authority to make decisions with the authority of a guardian 35                when the individual does not have adequate capacity to make such decisions.
- 36        (4)        Limiting the rights of an incompetent person by appointing a guardian for him 37                should not be undertaken unless it is clear that a guardian will give the 38                individual a fuller capacity for exercising his rights.
- 39        (5)        Guardianship should seek to preserve for the incompetent person the 40                opportunity to exercise those rights that are within his comprehension and 41                judgment, allowing for the possibility of error to the same degree as is allowed 42                to persons who are not incompetent. To the maximum extent of his 43                capabilities, an incompetent person should be permitted to participate as fully 44                as possible in all decisions that will affect him.
- 45        (6)        Minors, because they are legally incompetent to transact business or give 46                consent for most purposes, need responsible, accountable adults to handle
 47                property or benefits to which they are entitled. Parents are the natural 48                guardians of the person of their minor children, but unemancipated minors,
 49                when they do not have natural guardians, need some other responsible,
 50                accountable adult to be responsible for their personal welfare and for personal 51                decision-making on their behalf.

1           (7)    For adults, guardianship should always be a last resort and should only be 2           imposed after less restrictive alternatives have been considered and found to 3           be insufficient to meet the adult's needs.

4           (8)    The filing of regular status reports by the guardian of the person or general
5           guardian concerning the conditions and welfare of an incompetent person is 6           encouraged and should be required whenever appropriate.

12          of the order appointing a guardian or guardians or consideration of any matter pertaining to the 48          and subsequent reports annually thereafter. The clerk may order any other guardian of the person
